

Bruce Catton Says:

Senator Lee Thinks His Mortgage Bill Would Put Two-Thirds of Tenant Farmers and Sharecroppers Back on Their Own Land

WASHINGTON — One of the big things the New Deal was going to do back in its green and promising days—was to solve the farm-tenant problem.

Predicts Vote On Neutrality Bill Will Be Delayed

Senator Borah Says Senate Vote May Be Postponed Until Next Session

CUT WPA PROJECTS $40,000 Is Limit Set by House Under New Relief Measure

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—Opponents of the administration's neutrality bill expressed doubt Wednesday that the bill would reach the senate floor before adjournment.

Senator Borah (R-Idaho) predicted that after the house vote next week, the senate vote might be postponed until the next session.

Cut WPA Projects
WASHINGTON.—(AP)—The Works Progress Administration Wednesday suspended authorization of any new WPA projects costing more than the $40,000 limit set by the house in the new $1,735,000,000 relief bill.

Agree On Agricultural Bill
WASHINGTON.—(AP)—The senate and house conference committee agreed Wednesday upon the agricultural appropriation bill carrying more than $1,200,000,000 for the fiscal year starting July 1.

Seek To Rush Bill
WASHINGTON.—(AP)—Senate advocates of a $2,000,000,000 expansion of the currency, threatened to delay the enactment of highly important legislation on their demand for issuance of new money.

Carefully avoiding the word "fill-buster," but making their strategy none-the-less obvious, they pointed to the fact that certain bills must be enacted by June 30 to avoid serious consequences to the government and added many speeches might "block procedure."

Senator Thomas (D-Okla.) counted the tax bill, the relief appropriation, and the monetary bill now before the senate on his fingers and added that his convictions and responsibilities made it necessary he take advantage of the opportunity presented.

On the senate floor, Senator McCarran (D-Nev.), his colleague in the currency expansion battle, was holding up action on the administration's monetary measure by the use of many little devices of delay familiar to senate filibusters.

He broke up an apparent agreement to limit debate on an amendment to abolish the president's power to devalue the dollar. He demanded frequent quorum calls. When Senator Wagner (D-N.Y.) presented an amendment to another bill, he insisted it be read in full. And, he prolonged speeches of other senators by frequent and lengthy questions.

Greatest Weakness of Subs Pointed Out

Executive Officer of Submarine Squalus Testifies Before Board

PORTSMOUTH, N. H.—(AP)—Lieutenant William T. Doyle, Jr., executive officer of the submarine Squalus, which carried 26 men to their deaths, Wednesday supported testimony of his commander that virtually unprotected ventilating systems of this nation's submarines were their greatest weakness.

He said that the indicator board of the submarine Squalus showed green lights, indicating that all was well when the plunge was made.

Hosiery Manufacturer Is Found Dead at Spa

HOT SPRINGS, Ark.—(AP)—Col. Joseph Franklin Cannon, 62, prominent retired linen and hosiery manufacturer of Concord, N. C., was found dead early Wednesday in his hotel room. Physicians said apoplexy was the cause of his death.

There are 4500 youth hostels now operating in 2 countries, affording nightly lodging to hikers at approximately 25 cents.

CRANIUM CRACKERS

Locate These Dams

American dams have been in the news frequently. You've undoubtedly heard of all those listed below. But can you name the rivers which these dams hold back? In each case, the first letter of the proper river is listed as a clue.

Bolder—C
Shasta—S
Bonnevill—C
Shoshone—S
Parker—C
Coulidge—G.

Answers on Page Two

Hope Star

WEATHER. Arkansas—Mostly cloudy, local thunder showers Wednesday night and Thursday.
VOLUME 40—NUMBER 215
HOPE, ARKANSAS, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 21, 1939

PRICE 5c COPY

BLOCKADE CONTINUED

Council Takes Step to Refund License Fee Carnival Fair

Resolution Introduced, Expected to Be Adopted at Next Meeting

BAND $25 PER MONTH

Henry's Resolutions On Gas Rate Cases Are Adopted

A resolution to refund the Homestead County Fair Association the full license fee and electric rates for a carnival to appear with the county fair next September was introduced at the city council meeting Tuesday night.

The council is expected to adopt the resolution at its next meeting, clearing the way to resume activities of the Fair Association, upon the adoption of the resolution.

The council adopted a motion to pay the Hope Band $25 per month for public concerts to be presented during times of the year the weather permitted.

The Band Auxiliary previously had requested $100 per month.

Enory Thompson appeared before the council and requested that the city extend its light line from Mack's Tourist Court to Sheppard, a distance of approximately six miles.

Mr. Thompson reported several prospective customers were in the area. The matter was referred to the water and light committee.

Evon Wray, city meat and milk inspector, reported that he was ready to begin work as soon as a place was provided for inspection. Mayor W. S. Atkins appointed a committee to determine the feasibility of using the present fire station, Third street, as the place for inspection.

Bids were read for furniture to be installed in the new fire station, East Second street, but no action was taken.

Two resolutions by Alderman F. D. Henry in regard to gas rates of Hope and the employment of L. Carter Johnson to represent the city, were introduced and adopted. The resolutions follow:

Whereas, The rates now charged by the Arkansas Louisiana Gas Company for gas furnished the City of Hope are unreasonable and exorbitant; and

Whereas, There is now pending before the Department of Public Utilities of the State of Arkansas a case, being Docket No. 16, in which such rates are under investigation;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved by the City Council of the City of Hope, in regular session assembled, that L. C. Johnson be and he is hereby authorized and directed to represent the City of Hope in said hearing before said Department, and that he be and he is hereby authorized and directed to file such pleadings, for and on behalf of said City, as may be necessary and proper.

Second Resolution
Whereas, The City of Hope, has heretofore entered into a contract with the Louisiana-Nevada Transit Company to furnish gas to the City of Hope Water

(Continued on Page Three)

Bigness of Modern Business Narrows Investment Field, Says John Flynn

Corporation Laws Give Advantage to Large Enterprises

Big Business Has Enjoyed Tax Advantages Denied the Individual

MONOPOLIES ARE HIT

Government Sponsorship of Bigness Should Be Withdrawn

Third of six articles on the task of speeding up investment of huge sums now "frozen" in banks.

By JOHN T. FLYNN

(Written for NEA Service)

What is it that is holding up investment, or at least making it difficult?

There are many things in the way. If you follow political discussions and the speeches of business men you will imagine that the only thing holding up investment is Roosevelt. He is supposed to have produced uncertainty in business by his taxes, his interferences in business, his attacks on capital.

Then the European war situation is supposed to have bred fears, suspicions.

I do not wish completely to brush aside these notions. But I think they should get like business men and facts.

One of the first troubles is found in the more limited opportunities for investment. But this is something we can correct.

Big Business Narrows Field
One of the things which limits opportunity for investment is bigness in business. Now I do not want to debate the question of whether big business is more efficient than little business. Nor do I wish to talk about big business being immoral or bad. I see it as a purely economic question.

I recognize that certain industries must necessarily be big. But this is not true of all.

Take the steel industry. When steel plants were moderate in size, there were a large number of them. It is a fact that the United States Steel Corporation is a combination of over 300 concerns.

In an industry where plants are moderate in size, it is possible for one who is the general manager of plant, who has saved his earnings and who is ambitious, to start a plant of his own. He invests his own savings and perhaps induces some friends and perhaps colleagues to join him.

Each year ten or fifteen such men will set up in business for themselves. Perhaps only a few will succeed. But all will bring a large amount of investment funds into the market.

The economic value of the investment opportunity is always overlooked when considering this question of bigness. I am not, of course, advocating a return to little horse-and-buggy plants. I use the word "moderate-sized" comparatively.

Now you may say we cannot go back to little plants in the steel industry. All right. Then you cannot expect any newcomer ever again to seek a place for his investment money in a new steel company. The only chance is in the expansion of a few old ones.

The thing that tends to produce this situation is many-sided.

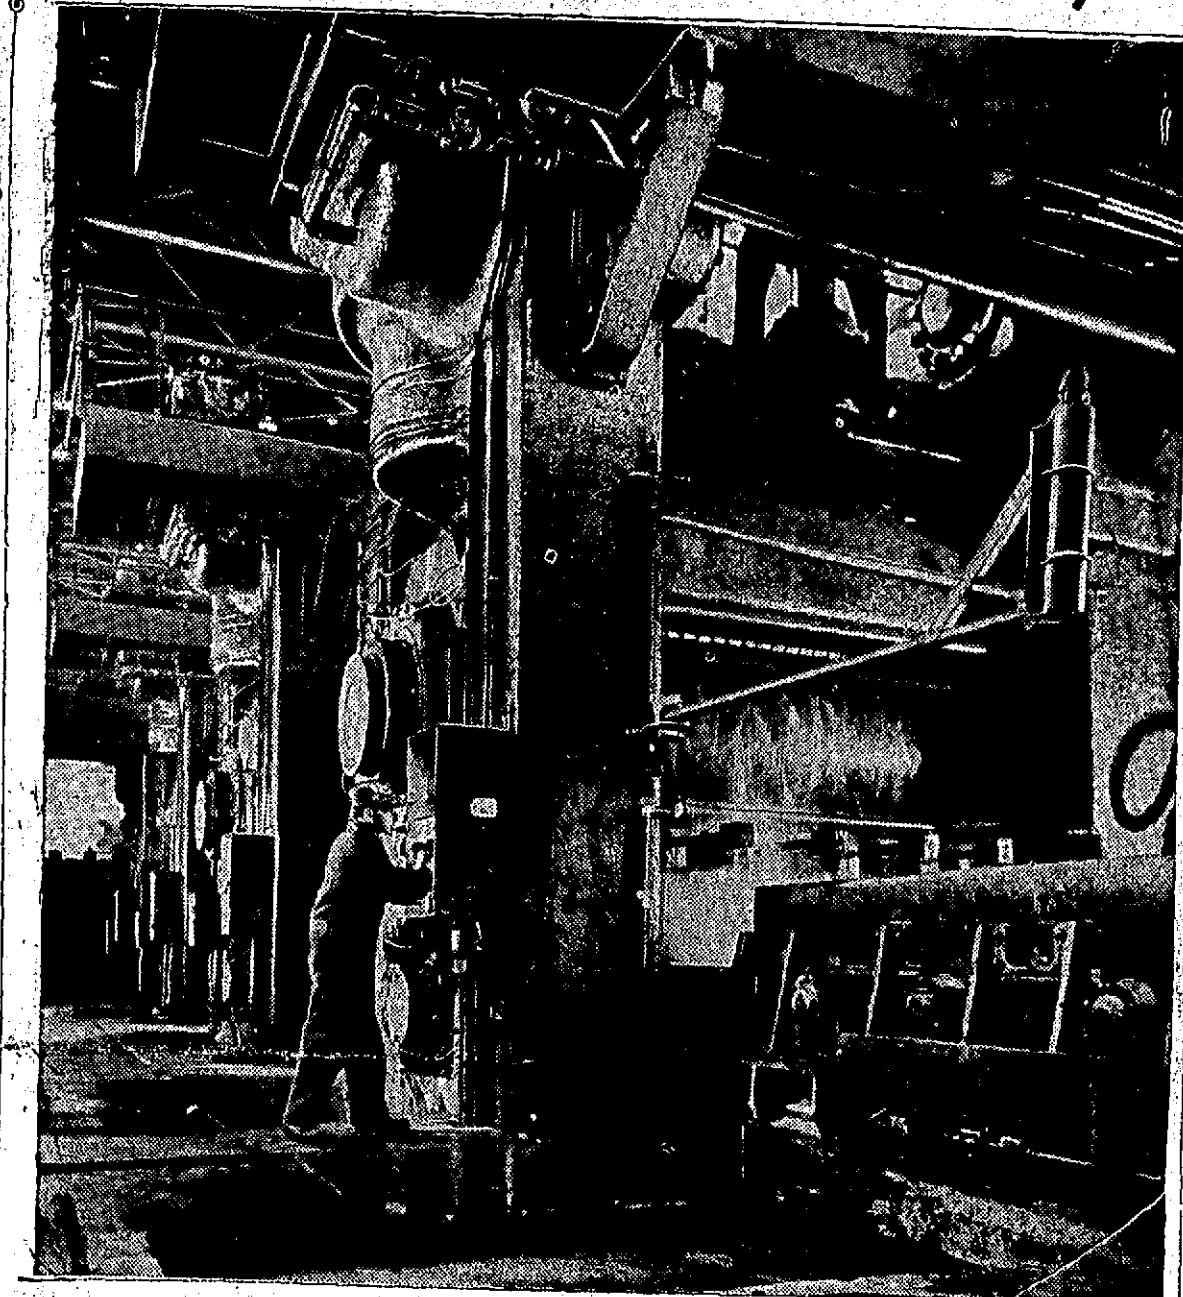

The corporation laws tend to give the breaks to the large-scale enterprises. Corporation laws enable corporations to escape all sorts of regulations which the individual must submit to. By the use of subsidiaries and holding companies, laws can be circumvented. And for years the corporations enjoyed tax advantages denied the individual.

Everything we have done has tended to make enterprise seek the large-scale corporate form with subsidiaries and hence has driven industry into large units.

No one would advocate abandonment of the corporate form. But the corporation laws and the tax laws applying to corporations and individuals should be gone over carefully to deprive the large corporate concern of any administrative and tax advantages it enjoys as against the small one.

Next, monopoly of every sort should be fought at every turn. These monopolies are of two kinds. The absolute monopoly where one or a handful of concerns by artificial means gets control of the market. The other is the trade agreements where com-

(Continued on Page Three)

(U. S. Steel Photo)
This is more than a striking photograph of a new industrial behemoth—the finishing rolls, operated by a lone workman, in the fabulous and super-modern Homestead mill of the Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corporation. It is in truth a picture of the industrial-economic scene in today's America, where business—by its very bigness and by the means at its command—has smothered the opportunity for investment in small-scale enterprises.

Lion Team to Play Here On Thursday

Several Football Stars Are Included in El Dorado Lineup

The Lion Oil softball team of El Dorado, one of the best in south Arkansas, will come here for a double-header Thursday night at Fair Park, meeting both the Bruner-Ivory and Leo Robins teams of Hope.

The roster of the El Dorado team includes Roy Reese, University of Alabama football end and Percy Sanders, former Arkansas grid star, catchers.

Phillip "Windmill" Moore, pitcher, former El Dorado High School grid star, and Charles Newton, Port Worth semi-pro.

Joe Grundle, manager and former outfielder of the Cotton States league, J. R. Saltonstall and Roy White, both former El Dorado High School grid stars. Saltonstall plays in the outfield and White plays third base.

Other members of the team include Royce Arthur, Curley Bankin, Jack Murphy, C. W. Martin, J. R. Bordone.

Football Commissioner Bill Brasher said he expected the largest crowd of the season for the two games. The admission charge will be 10 and 20 cents.

The Texaco Sky Chiefs of Texarkana nosed out the Leo Robins team, 14 to 13, at Fair Park Tuesday night. Harper, in shortfield, played best for Robins. Stevens and Patterson were the Texarkana stars.

New uniforms have been received by the Robins team.

Eight Lives Lost in New York Fire

Worst Blaze in 30 Years Rages Through Crowded Buildings

NEW YORK.—(AP)—The worst Chinatown fire in 30 years raged through two tenement buildings Wednesday, taking at least eight lives and menacing the whole area of crowded buildings. Four firemen were injured.

The mean annual rainfall of the entire globe is 36 inches.

15th Anniversary for Ladies Specialty Shop

The Ladies Specialty Shop this week is celebrating its 15th anniversary in business here with special prices prevailing on ladies ready-to-wear.

Home Talent Play on Friday Night

Only One Performance Is to Be Given, Auxiliary Announces

There will be only one performance of the home-talent play, "Mystery at Midnight," which is to be presented Friday night at the Hope city hall auditorium.

This announcement was made by a spokesman for the Band Auxiliary, sponsoring the show. It was originally planned to present the play both Thursday and Friday nights, but due to conflicting entertainments on Thursday it was decided to have only one performance—Friday night.

Winners of the city-wide baby popularity contest will be announced before the curtain rises on the play Friday night, the Band Auxiliary spokesman said.

State Delegation Leaves N. Y. Fair

Financiers Take Refunding Bond Matter Under Consideration

NEW YORK.—(AP)—More than 200 Arkansians started home by special train Tuesday after having attended dedication of the state's exhibit at the world's fair.

Governor Carl E. Bailey remained behind to discuss state bonds with New York bankers. He said he would leave Wednesday or Thursday for Washington but anticipated no action on the bonds "for some time," as financiers would take the matter under consideration.

He said he did not know definitely when he would return to Little Rock.

Movable camps to house itinerant farm laborers are being introduced in California by the federal Government.

Maiden Vote Ruling Announced by Holt

Poll Tax Receipt Can Be Obtained Up Until October 1

The Attorney General's office has advised officials of the Woodruff county democratic committee that persons who have reached the age of 21 since the time for assessing poll taxes, in 1938 will be eligible to vote in the 1940 democratic primary election without paying a poll tax.

"Since the person who becomes 21 after the assessing time in 1938 would not appear on the assessment rolls and, thus be eligible to pay his 1939 poll tax prior to October 1, 1939, the law permits him to vote without payment of a poll tax at all elections held between October 1, 1939, and October 1, 1940," the opinion said.

"It is highly important to explain to the young voter the necessity of him assessing his tax this year so he may be able to pay his poll tax next year."

An act of the 1939 legislature changed the deadline for payment of the tax from June 15 to October 1.

Lou Gehrig Never to Play Ball Again

Former New York First Baseman Has Infantile Paralysis

NEW YORK.—(AP)—Ed Barrow, president of the New York Yankees, announced Wednesday that Lou Gehrig was suffering from chronic infantile paralysis, and will never play baseball again.

Harry Goewey, a Saskatchewan woodman, was attacked by a bear he awakened from its winter sleep and killed it with an ax.

One hundred thousand addresses are on the U. S. Weather Bureau's mailing list for daily reports.

A Thought

Faith is a certain image of eternity. All things are present to it—things past, and things to come.—Jeremy Taylor.

Women, Children Being Moved Out of Tientsin Area

Indefinite Period of Resistance Seen by British and Japs

TEST OF PATIENCE

Japanese Forces Occupy Southern China War Area Port

TIENTSIN, China.—(AP)—The eight-day Japanese blockade of the British and French concessions developed Wednesday into a determined test of patience between British and Japanese.

An official British report said that 1,000 British women and children were being evacuated from the Tientsin foreign areas preliminary to the "indefinite period of resistance."

Will Assure Food
LONDON.—(AP)—Prime Minister Chamberlain told the house of commons Wednesday that Britain "had made clear to Japan that she would take necessary steps to assure adequate food supplies for British subjects in the blacked concession at Tientsin."

Japs Take Over Port
HONGKONG, China.—(AP)—Japanese forces occupied the Kwangtung province port of Swatow, Wednesday in a quick landing after months of comparative quiet in the South China war area.

Dispatches said Nippon units encountered little resistance.

The American destroyer Pillsbury and the British destroyer Thetis are in the Swatow harbor safe-guarding the interests of 40 Americans and 20 Britons there.

Half Food Supply
TIENTSIN.—(AP)—The food situation behind "electrified" barricades with which the Japanese have "ringed" the British and bordering French concessions remained unchanged despite General Sugiyama's statement that the Japanese would "do everything to facilitate the entry of food."

Japanese patrol boats still were preventing all sampans from landing food in the British concession and the Japanese news agency reported that vegetable growers outside the British area had agreed on a "spontaneous boycott" of the area.

The 1,500 Britons virtually imprisoned within the concession, faced the loss of vital public services as Japanese employees began leaving their jobs under threats of death to their families if they remained at work. Chinese workers in the concession's water, electric power, police and other departments received the threats and those with relatives outside the concession were resigning. Both Chinese and British expressed belief the Japanese military had sent them.

Voltage of Barricade
Japanese Consul-General Shigenori Tashiro informed foreign consuls of electrification of the fire cordon around the concessions, asking them to notify their nationals so as to prevent casualties. The Japanese refused to disclose the voltage and amperage carried by the wires, taking the stand that the figures were military secrets.

Japanese army spokesmen would not say whether it was the intention to kill anyone trying to pass the barrier without Japanese permission, but authorities of the French concession said they were informed the fires carried a charge sufficient to cause instant death.

Domei said the electrification was part of a Japanese "decision to make the same preparations as in front lines." It said the wires were charged to prevent smugglers from carrying or throwing foodstuffs into the concession and also to break off communication between what it said were anti-Japanese pro-Communist agitators within the concessions and confederates outside.

Green Traffic Lights Burn Out Before Red

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—(AP)—Memphis police have pondered this question for years.

Why do bulbs used in green traffic lights burn out three times as fast as identical bulbs in the red and amber signals?

It's true in almost every instance, says C. V. Stankor, superintendent of fire and police signals. He theorizes it might be that because the green bulb is at the bottom of the signal it is closer to the street and therefore subjected to greater degrees of heat.

Cotton

NEW ORLEANS.—(AP)—July cotton opened Wednesday at 8.39 and closed at 8.41.

Spot cotton closed dull and unchanged, middling 9.45.

Hope Star

Star of Hope, 1899; Press, 1927. Consolidated January 18, 1929

O Justice, Deliver Thy Herald From False Report!

Published every week-day afternoon by Star Publishing Co., Inc.
C. E. Palmer & Alex. H. Washburn, at The Star building, 212-214 South
Walnut street, Hope, Ark.

C. E. PALMER, President
ALEX. H. WASHBURN, Editor and Publisher

(AP) — Means Associated Press
(NEA) — Means Newspaper Enterprise Ass'n.

Subscription Rate (Always Payable in Advance): By city carrier, per week
$1.00; per month, $3.50; one year, $35.00. By mail, in Hempstead, Nevada, Howard, Miller and La Fayette counties, $3.50 per year; elsewhere $3.50.

Member of The Associated Press: The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.

Charges on Tributes, Etc.: Charge will be made for all tributes, cards of thanks, resolutions, etc., memorializing the departed. Commercial newspapers hold to this policy in the news columns to protect their readers from a deluge of space-taking memorials. The Star disclaims responsibility of the safe-keeping or return of any unsolicited manuscripts.

The "Popular Front" Era Faces Decline

For the past three years, "the popular front" has been an important feature of politics in many countries. Fortunately or unfortunately, according to one's point of view, it now appears to be definitely on the decline.

The British Labor Party's annual conference rejected by an overwhelming vote of 2,360,000 to 248,000 a proposal for a united front with the Communist, Cooperative and Liberal parties.

The French Socialist Party in its national convention broke with the Communist Party, to which it had been linked since the campaign which put the Popular Front in power in France in 1936. The vote of 540 to 176, while nevertheless surprising in its emphasis.

In the United States, the same increasing restlessness at being linked with the Communists is showing itself in a rising tide. The Socialists who at Detroit several years ago climbed into bed with the Communists for "united front" purposes, are long out, and are now completely in opposition to the Communist line policies. Thousand of American "fellow-travelers," shocked at the Russian purge and the savagery with which they were attacked in Communist organs the moment they deviated in any "united front" organization from the Communist line, have deserted those alliances. The sincerity of Communist support of the New Deal began to be questioned when it was noted that Communist agitation for disaffection in the army and navy never ceased, that an uncritical admiration for Russia seemed to be the test of loyalty to the united front, and that Communist enthusiasm for united front organizations waned as soon as they showed signs of deviating from Communist policies.

What sort of realignments for the future these tendencies portend, it is hard to say, but it is clear that throughout the world and in America as well, new alignments are in the making.

It is the active and ever-present fact of a resurgent Germany that is preventing the British Labor and Liberal fronts from unseating the Tory regime which has not, outside the foreign situation, a firm hold on the country.
The same thing holds France united behind the coalition which overshadowed the united front. In the United States, too, it is feeling about the foreign situation that has jumbled politics until normal alignments on the "progressive" and "conservative" axes are temporarily meaningless.

The next year is certain to see world-wide political realignments whose outlines are scarcely visible today.

CLASSIFIED

COLUMNS OF OPPORTUNITIES

"The More You Tell the Quicker You Sell"

You Can Talk to Only One Man
Want Ads Talk to Thousands

SELL-RENT-BUY OR SWAP

All Went Ads cash in advance Not taken over the Phone

One time—2c word, minimum 30c Three times—3c word, minimum 50c
Six times—5c word, minimum 90c One month—18c word, minimum $2.70
Rates are for continuous insertions only.

NOTICE

Male Help Wanted

Good Watkins route open now in
Hope for the right party; no car or experience necessary; a chance to make some real money. Write THE J. R.
old hi-way 67, between Hope and
Emmet. 19-3p WATKINS COMPANY, 70-82 W. Iowa
Ave., Memphis, Tenn. 19-1t

HERD REDUCTION — Beginning
July 1st, 50 head registered and Purebred Hereford (White Face) cattle.
All ages, both sexes. W. Biorseth,
old hi-way 67, between Hope and Emmet. 19-3p

Male Help Wanted

Good Watkins route open now in
Hope for the right party; no car or
experience necessary; a chance to make
some real money. Write THE J. R.
old hi-way 67, between Hope and
Emmet. 19-3p WATKINS COMPANY, 70-82 W. Iowa
Ave., Memphis, Tenn. 19-1t

Male Help Wanted

Good Watkins route open now in
Hope for the right party; no car or
experience necessary; a chance to make
some real money. Write THE J. R.
old hi-way 67, between Hope and
Emmet. 19-3p WATKINS COMPANY, 70-82 W. Iowa
Ave., Memphis, Tenn. 19-1t

Male Help Wanted

Good Watkins route open now in
Hope for the right party; no car or
experience necessary; a chance to make
some real money. Write THE J. R.
old hi-way 67, between Hope and
Emmet. 19-3p WATKINS COMPANY, 70-82 W. Iowa
Ave., Memphis, Tenn. 19-1t

Male Help Wanted

Good Watkins route open now in
Hope for the right party; no car or
experience necessary; a chance to make
some real money. Write THE J. R.
old hi-way 67, between Hope and
Emmet. 19-3p WATKINS COMPANY, 70-82 W. Iowa
Ave., Memphis, Tenn. 19-1t

Male Help Wanted

Good Watkins route open now in
Hope for the right party; no car or
experience necessary; a chance to make
some real money. Write THE J. R.
old hi-way 67, between Hope and
Emmet. 19-3p WATKINS COMPANY, 70-82 W. Iowa
Ave., Memphis, Tenn. 19-1t

Male Help Wanted

Good Watkins route open now in
Hope for the right party; no car or
experience necessary; a chance to make
some real money. Write THE J. R.
old hi-way 67, between Hope and
Emmet. 19-3p WATKINS COMPANY, 70-82 W. Iowa
Ave., Memphis, Tenn. 19-1t

Male Help Wanted

Good Watkins route open now in
Hope for the right party; no car or
experience necessary; a chance to make
some real money. Write THE J. R.
old hi-way 67, between Hope and
Emmet. 19-3p WATKINS COMPANY, 70-82 W. Iowa
Ave., Memphis, Tenn. 19-1t

Male Help Wanted

Good Watkins route open now in
Hope for the right party; no car or
experience necessary; a chance to make
some real money. Write THE J. R.
old hi-way 67, between Hope and
Emmet. 19-3p WATKINS COMPANY, 70-82 W. Iowa
Ave., Memphis, Tenn. 19-1t

Male Help Wanted

The Family Doctor

E. M. REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

By DR. MORRIS FISHBEN
Editor, Journal of the American Medical Association, and of Hygiene, the Health Magazine

Fat, Digesting More Slowly Than Other Foods, Requires Discretion

The amount of fat eaten by various people differs according to their taste and desires. It is commonly believed that the Eskimos eat large quantities of oils and fats. Those who know say, however, that they eat a great deal of protein, not very much fat, and hardly any carbohydrate.

The eating of a certain amount of carbohydrate food with the fats help their digestion. This is probably the reason for the placing of apple sauce with roast pork as a regular relationship in the diet.

It is commonly said that people who do a great deal of work in the open air can consume great quantities of fat without trouble. It should be pointed out, however, that hard workers who spend much time in the open air eat a great deal of food altogether. For instance, in Maine lumbermen whose diets were investigated took more than 8000 calories of food a day, obtaining 49 per cent from carbohydrate and only 44 per cent from fat.

In a general study of diets it has been found that men consume from 25 to 50 per cent of the total calorie intake in the form of fat and that women take from 32 to 54 per cent—the average being 39 for men and 42 for women.

Fat is expensive. Poor people tend to eat less fat than others who have plenty of money to spend on food.
Everyone is familiar with the fact that there is said to be shortage of fats in central Europe. Indeed, whenever a nation as a whole begins to economize, reduction in fats in the earliest steps. Poor people are likely to eat more carbohydrates and sugars than fat proportionately because the sugars are generally cheap as compared with the proteins and the fats.

In selecting fats in the diet certain ones are preferable to others because of their digestibility and the other factors which they provide. Fats are digested in the small bowel by the matterial which comes from the pancreas into the bowel. The bile aids by emulsifying the fats.

Butter, which has a low melting point, is easily digested. Lard also has a low melting point but beef fat and mutton fat have high melting points and are not, therefore, easily digested.

Fats are digested most slowly of all foods. The long time required for their digestion is responsible for the fact that hunger does not follow soon after a meal containing a good deal of fat. It is not wise, therefore, to have too much fat in a meal. The presence of a lot of fat will delay the digestion of the proteins, through decreasing the gastric juices which may come in contact with the proteins.

For this reason fat meats, such as those from pork and from the goose, are not considered easily digestible.

Car Radios Banned

CALCUTTA, India.—(P)—Radios and gramophones installed in cars have been banned in Calcutta. The traffic board believes the attention of motorists is liable to be distracted from the road by music.

Today's Answers to CRANUM CRACKERS

Questions on Page One

Boulder—Colorado
Shasta—Sacramento
Bonneville—Columbia
Shoshone—Shoshone
Parker—Colorado
Coolidge—Gila.

For Sale

FOR SALE—1939 Ford truck, 1½ ton.
Good condition, with 6 thousand miles.
Bill Foster, Elvins, Ark. 19-1p

For Rent

FOR RENT—30 acre farm 1½ miles from town near old highway 67. Good house, deep well. Telephone 404?W. 19-1p

For Rent

FOR RENT—3 room modern apartment, southern exposure. Phone 669-J.
110 N. Washington, Mrs. J. H. Bennett.
21-3t

Want It Printed RIGHT?

Call

768

We'll have a printing expert call on you, and you'll have an economical, high quality job. Whatever your needs, we can serve them.

Star Publishing COMPANY

"Printing That Makes an Impression"

HIGHLIGHTS FROM LATEST BOOKS

Gandhi, a Strange Combination

Into the 600 pages of his book,
"Inside Asia" (Harcourt: $3.50) Reporter John Gunther has packed a tremendous story, the sort of bright, interpretative writing that distinguished his "Timeless" "Inside Europe." But it is more important because it is the first book to cover the Orient so exhaustively.
Just a few lines here, excerpted from his chapters on India and Gandhi.

Mr. Gandhi, who is an incredible combination of Jesus Christ, Tammany Hall, and your father, is the greatest Indian since Buddha.

No more difficult or enigmatic character can easily be conceived. He is a slippery fellow. I mean no disrespect.
But consider some of the contradictions, some of the puzzling points of contrast in his career and character.
For instance, his great contribution to India was the theory and practice of non-violence or civil disobedience. But at the very time that non-violence or civil disobedience. But the very time that non-violence was the deepest thing he believed in, he was supporting Britain in the World War.
There is again the matter of his celebrated fasts. He fasted purely for moral reasons, but they served a considerable practical convenience, because if he began a fast in jail, the British had to let him out. A sort of etherealized Houdini, he was in position to escape from prison any time he chose.

His inconsistencies seem remarkable, until you note that his objective seldom varies, but that he is willing to con-promise on contributory details.
For instance, he devoted the major portion of his career of a titanic struggle with Britain, yet now he is co-operating more or less freely with Britain under the new constitution.
Nevertheless, Mr. Gandhi adds up to a great deal. The record of his life is heroic. . . . He fought fast—and what used to be stronger than fate—the British empire.

BARBS

Attempted suicides are three times as frequent among women. Most of the successful ones among men. Most of the feminine varieties are probably just threats for a new wardrobe.
When lightning struck the telephone system in Olyphant, Pa., all the phones in town rang at the same time. The effect must have been something like the rural party line.
Jimmy Braddock and Tommy Farr are to mix in London. Only question that fight will settle is which was whipped most thoroughly by Joe Louis.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE . . . with . . . MAJOR HOOPLE

OUT OUR WAY

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

Hard to Take

ALLEY OOP

Legal Target

WASH TUBBS

Now Wash Knows

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

A Poor Investment

RED RYDER

Two Men and the Law

By FRED HARMAN

SOCIETY

Mrs. Sid Henry

Telephone 821

Wondering

I wonder if I rose once more
As early, say, as half past four,
And just beyond the garden gate
Begin to dig for worms for bait
I wonder if I had my wish
Again a chore as that would be
I wonder if I had my wish
And homeward came with twenty fish
Would I beneath a sheltering tree
Say: "Yeave the cleaning job to me!"
And when I had the sealing done,
Would I think that a lot of fun?
I wonder should I (care to slip),
Once more attempt a fishing trip,
Could I three glad companions take
And row them all around the lake
And would I, with the setting sun,
Consider such hard labor fun?
Time was that it was fun to rise
Before the dawn was in the skies
And dig beyond the garden gate
For angle worms to use for bait,
But with the silver in my bray
I wonder could I take it now?
—E. A. G.

Bobbie Ward left Wednesday morning for a two day's visit in Mena and DeQueen.

In celebration of his third birthday anniversary, Master Jimmie Branch was host to a most attractive party on Tuesday afternoon, June 20, at the home of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Branch of South Main Street. Chairs and swings were arranged on the side lawn, and after greetings and receiving gifts, the young host invited his guests out on the lawn, where caps and balloons were presented, and the fun was on. Pictures were made of the group, and a huge birthday cake topped with three lighted candles was placed before the honoree, and with the assistance of his mother, was cut and served with ice cream to the following: Syd McMath, Ricky Forster, Al Graves, Dave McKim, Billie Herndon, Stevie Powell, John Allen, Henry Life, Jerry Johnson and Jimmie Branch. Others present

RIALTO

NOW SHOWING

The life story of "Wrong Way" Corrigan...
Douglas Corrigan
Paul Kelly
"THE FLYING IRISHMAN" and
"IDIOT'S DELIGHT"
CLARK GABLE

LAST TIMES TONIGHT
MAURINE O'SULLIVAN
HENRY FONDA
"LET US LIVE"

THURSDAY-FRIDAY
Matinee Thursday

Thrilling as Derby Day!
Romantic as old Kentucky!
Exciting as a photo finish!

From the heart of the blue grass country...the thrill of racing thrill!

George Raft
Ellen Drew

"THE LADY'S FROM KENTUCKY"
A Paramount Picture with HUGH HERBERT - ZaSu Pitts
Directed by Alexander Hall

COMING SUNDAY
"THE HARDY'S RIDE HIGH" SOLINGER
DELICIOUSLY COOL

LETTERS to the Editor

This is your newspaper. Write to it. Letters criticizing the editorial policy or commenting upon facts in the news columns, are equally welcome. Choose a topic everyone will be interested in. Be brief. Avoid personal abuse. The world's greatest critics were painfully polite. Every writer must sign his name and address.

Our Industries

Practically speaking our nation is but a chain of industries and each link of these various industries are so closely allied that any obstruction to the progress of either is immediately reflected by a like obstruction to the entire chain, the writer, while not a cotton grower observes that the average citizen hardly appreciates the fact that the progress of every institution and every individual in the south is dependent to a great measure on the prosperity of the cotton grower, the progress of the farmer stimulates distribution, distribution stimulates business. The progress of the business man means business to the banker, the progress of the factory stimulates the prosperity of the factory, the increase of employment, employment improvement means an increase of consumption, which also serves to stimulate a demand for raw material, the like of confidence on the part of each industry in the integrity of the industries as a whole. Each industry sends lobbyists to congress to represent their interest annually, but we find that the lack of interest on the part of each industry in the welfare of the other is a serious obstruction to our whole economic system, any attempt at legislation for the betterment of big business meets enmity and distrust on the part of little business, and any effort towards legislation for the interest of other industries meets opposition and distrust on the part of big business.

Then we ask what is the matter with our economic system? The answer is easy only a lack of teamwork, but the remedy is not so simple. A good physician may prescribe an effective remedy but it is worthless to the patient who is loath to take it. So my answer to the puzzle is when each industry recognizes the necessity of the other, and that our economic life is in the hands of this chain of industries, and that the weakening of each link of this economic chain is a severe menace to the chain as a whole, and when each legislator disregards selfish interest shakes the lobbyists and serves for the advancement of the nation as a whole we shall then find an economic balance and our nation shall again see progress.
M. H. MOODY
Hope Ark.
R. 1, Box 184.

Corporation Laws

(Continued from Page One)

petitors get together to keep out newcomers, to keep up prices, to prevent the new man with new ideas finding a place for himself.
Monopoly and monopoly practices have all but completely destroyed the building industry. And they will gradually do the same thing to every industry into which they are permitted to enter.
Therefore, the first course is two-fold: (1) War, unremitting war, on every kind of restraint upon trade and every form of monopoly practice. (2) Revision of the tax and corporation laws to equalize the opportunity of the big man and withdraw government sponsorship of bigness.
NEXT: Obstacles to investment in the great industries.

Investigate Report of German Bund Camp

NORTH LITTLE ROCK.—(P)—Commander Truman N. Baker of the North Little Rock American Legion post, said Wednesday that a committee of the organization was investigating a report that a German Bund camp was to be established on the outskirts of North Little Rock.

The Standings

Hope Softball League

Class A League
Club	W.	L.	Pct.
Bruner-Ivory	7	0	1.000
Leo Robins	4	4	.500

Class B League
Club	W.	L.	Pct.
Soil Conservation	8	2	.800
Bruner-Ivory	7	3	.700
Unique Cafe	3	2	.600
Geo. W. Robison	4	6	.400
Gunter Bros.	1	8	.111

Tuesday's Results
Texarkana	Sky	Chiefs	14	Leo Robins 13.

Wednesday Night
No games scheduled.

Thursday Night
Bruner-Ivory 4 vs. Lion Oil of El Dorado.
Leo Robins vs. Lion Oil of El Dorado.

Admission 20c, children 10c.
Friday Night
Geo. W. Robison vs. Gunter Bros.

Southern Association

Clubs	W.	L.	Pct.
Memphis	36	25	.590
Chattanooga	34	27	.557
Knoxville	31	27	.534
Birmingham	29	28	.509
Atlanta	31	30	.508
New Orleans	29	33	.468
Nashville	24	32	.429
Little Rock	24	35	.400

Tuesday's Results
Nashville 9	Knoxville 1.
Memphis 8	Little Rock 5.
New Orleans 3	Birmingham 1.
Atlanta 4	Chattanooga 3	(10 in-ings.

Games Wednesday
Memphis at Little Rock, off day.
Atlanta at Chattanooga.
Nashville at Knoxville.
New Orleans at Birmingham.

National League

Clubs	W.	L.	Pct.
Cincinnati	37	18	.673
St. Louis	29	23	.558
New York	29	26	.527
Chicago	28	28	.500
Brooklyn	26	27	.491
Pittsburgh	22	28	.442
Boston	22	31	.415
Philadelphia	18	32	.360

Tuesday's Results
Chicago 3	Boston 1.
Cincinnati 4	Brooklyn 2.
New York at Pittsburgh, wet grounds.
Philadelphia at St. Louis, rain.

Games Wednesday
Boston at Chicago.
Brooklyn at Cincinnati.
New York at Pittsburgh.
Philadelphia at St. Louis.

American League

Clubs	W.	L.	Pct.
New York	42	11	.782
Boston	30	21	.588
Cleveland	29	25	.537
Detroit	30	27	.526
Chicago	28	28	.500
Philadelphia	21	32	.398
Washington	22	35	.386
St. Louis	15	39	.278

Tuesday's Results
Boston 8	St. Louis 1.
New York 13	Chicago 3.
Cleveland 4	Washington 3	(12 in-ings.
Detroit 5	Philadelphia 0.

Games Wednesday
Chicago at New York.
Cleveland at Washington.
St. Louis at Boston.
Detroit at Philadelphia.

RAISING A FAMILY

By Olive Roberts Barton

Originality Is Magic That Makes Any Party

All Children love a party. And to give one it is not necessary to have in a magician or hire ponies to ride. The magic secret is originality. Before you bake the cake or order the ice cream, get out the good old thinking cap.
There are, say, a dozen youngsters coming to your house, of assorted ages and sex. They don't know each other very well, except three or four of the neighbors. The others will mostly be scared to death of entering a house full of strangers.
Well then, there has to be some common ground at once, as an introduction. Something that all the children will be interested in equally of put them at their ease.
It is fair year, so right here we have an idea already provided. I suggest the back yard for this. In about thirty minutes, clever fingers can construct a pasteboard periscope and a tryon with the aid of cardboard and a big balloon blown to bursting.
Tickets may be issued upon entrance. Chairs might make a wicket, or try the more realistic turnstile, consisting of broomhandle with crossed sticks.
Once inside the "grounds," things begin to happen. Concessions will provide the fun. Children love to play with paper money, and a box of it will come in handy.
There can be a booth for "selling" paper caps, or gold crowns cut from paper. Any kind of dress up idea will go over big with the small guests.
From a tent a gypsy dressed in a cravat and bandana can tell fortunes or give out little cards. Have somebody guess weights and the bathroom scales will provide more fun. A small prize goes to the nearest guesser.
A target of some sort keeps interest going. If you cannot get hold of a board with circles, a large sheet tacked to a curtain stretcher makes a good background for one. Draw the circles and bull's eye in colored chalk.
Famed Notre Dame
ROCKNE AND LAYDEN.—The names of Rockne and Layden, long associated with Notre Dame football, now take their place in the music world, Jackie Rockne, 13-year-old son of the former Irish grid coach, and Elmer Layden, Jr., 9-year-old son of the star full-back under Rockne and present Notre Dame mentor, played a piano duet in a recent recital.

Woman Cited to Appear Before Z. M. McCarroll

LITTLE ROCK.—(P)—Revenue Commissioner Z. M. McCarroll Tuesday cited Mrs. John Benz of McGee to appear June 28 to show cause why her retail liquor permit should not be revoked for allegedly selling liquor to minors.
The commissioner already has under advisement the question whether the permit should be revoked for her alleged failure to make a complete report on her stock when the Nyberg act became effective this month.

FDR Friendly Toward South Pension Plan

WASHINGTON.—(P)—Representative Ellis (D-Ark.), and a White House caller Wednesday, told reporters that President Roosevelt was "very friendly" toward the idea of working out something for the South in the way of variable federal grants for old age pensions.
He said, however, that no plan had been evolved "to get the job done equitably."
The Volga is the longest river in Europe.
Dame mentor, played a piano duet in a recent recital.

So They Say

The Red Cross is working 15,149,118 stop the bombing of cities, or at least establish zones of immunity under Red Cross control.—Norman H. Davis, chairman of the American Red Cross.
For 30 months you have been a nightmare—literally a nightmare—to the pluto-democracies, and this must make you proud.—Mussolini to the Italian mercenaries returning from Spain.
We gain nothing if in our fight against communism we invoke fascism. We gain nothing if in our fight against fascism we invoke communism.—Both can be successfully fought only by invoking an uncompromising devotion to democracy.—Governor Lehman of New York.
Frank Hague has found out that he is not the law.—William J. Carney, New Jersey C. I. O. director, on the Supreme Court decision outlawing Jersey City's public assembly restrictions.
The very idea of a government, republican in form, implies a right on the part of its citizens to meet, peaceably for consultation in respect to public affairs and to petition for a redress of grievances.—Supreme Court Justices Roberts and Black in the Hague case.
The earth's revolution around the sun takes 365 days, 5 hours, 48 minutes and 47 seconds.

Ladies Specialty Shop

15th Anniversary Sale

Starts THURSDAY

CELEBRATING 15 YEARS OF PROGRESS

Because the citizens of Hope and its trade territory have continued for 15 years to buy their ready-to-wear needs from us, we again say "THANK YOU" in the way you'll appreciate most—an opportunity for you to save "REAL MONEY" on smart, fashion, right summer apparel or accessories. Check your needs for the whole summer through, buy now! You'll save almost half the regular price on your Dresses during this Anniversary Sale.

Summer DRESSES!

For Daytime... "Dress-up"... Travel!

Fashion-hit Styles and Fabrics

GROUP NO. 1

Cottons... for every hour of the day. Cottons for travel, for home, for street wear; for every where and everyone. Sizes: Junior and Regular.

$2

GROUP NO. 2

We have Dresses in this lot that will amaze you! Spun Rayons, Lhens, Powder Puff Muslins and Crepes in lovely styles. Sizes 12 to 40.

$4

GROUP NO. 3

A special collection planned with all your summer activities in mind, priced to save you money! Dark Sheers for afternoon, travel or business. Crisply accented with lingerie touches. Sizes 16 to 44.

$6

Slips, Gowns, Pajamas

Slips, Gowns and Pajamas in silks, satins and cottons in every conceivable style at a part of their real worth!

98¢

GLOVES

For Summer Wear.

White and Pastel Shades
Our Best Value to You for Our 15th Anniversary Sale, pr

15c

ANNIVERSARY SHOE VALUES

You'll find styles for every occasion in dress or sport wear. Ties, Straps and Pumps in White Linen, Natural Linen, Summer Suedes, and Smart White Combinations.

$1.95

Before You Buy Anything Shop Our Anniversary Sale

1/2 PRICE REMNANT SALE

Starts Thursday Morning
8:30 o'Clock.

Good Selection of Materials
Sheers, Prints and Silks

TALBOT'S

"We Outfit the Family"

Memphis Chicks Halt Travelers, 8-5

Five Game. Winning Streak Comes to End Tuesday Night

LITTLE ROCK.—(AP)—The league-leading Memphis Chicks halted the winning streak of the cellarite Little Rock Travelers at five straight Tuesday night in an 8 to 5 victory.

The Chicks picked three Travelers for 13 hits. Tony Piet, Tribe third-sacker, was the big noise for the winners, getting a single, double and triple out of four trips.

The third game of the series between the two clubs, scheduled for Wednesday night, was postponed to allow the Travelers to make train connections for Knoxville.

Memphis..... 001 210 022—8 13 3
Little Rock..... 010 020 011—5 6 0

Henry Stout and Gautreaux, Epps, Brazie, Fendergast, Harris and DePhillips.

Crax Beat Lookouts
CHATTANOOGA, Tenn.—(AP)—Rucker, Atlanta righthander, rapped a single with two out in the tenth inning Tuesday night off Johnny Chambers, fourth Lookout pitcher, to deliver the winning run. The Cracker took the game 4 to 3.

Bill Nicholson, slugging rightfielder, for the Lookouts, contributed a home run as one of Chattanooga's five hits.

Atlanta..... 000 000 030 1—4 19 1
Chattanooga..... 100 000 020 0—3 5 1

Harris, Gabler, Poindexter, Stein and Smith, Bass, Lanahan, Pritchett, Chambers and Camelli.

Pells Stop Barons
BIRMINGHAM, Ala.—(AP)—Lefty Sid Bay, right and the K-VX, I. HETET Cohen stopped Birmingham's Barons with five scattered hits here Tuesday night and the New Orleans Pelicans evened the series at one-all with a 1 to 1 decision.

Cohen had a shutout until the ninth when, with one out, Paul Dunlap hit a home run into the rightfield bleachers.

New Orleans..... 02 100 000—3 12 0
Birmingham..... 000 000 001—1 5 1

Cohen and Redmond; Wetherell, Carson, Lannan and Klump.

Vois Smash Smokies
KNOXVILLE, Tenn.—(AP)—Behind the brilliant five-hit pitching of Southpaw Mike Martink, the Nashville Vois defeated the Knoxville Smokies, 9-1, here Tuesday afternoon in the opening game of a two-till series.

Nashville..... 000 800 100—9 10 1
Knoxville..... 100 000 000—1 5 3

Martynick and Bleamire; Swigart, Sharpe and Kies, Aaragon.

Not Trying Enough Declares Diz Dean

Pitcher Accuses Mates of Nursing a Defeatist Complex

CHICAGO.—(AP)—Jerome Herman Dean, the $185,000 "Sunday" pitcher with the Chicago Cubs, Tuesday, tossed a few verbal brick bats at his teammates in a speech before the Chicago Association of Commerce for "not trying hard enough."

"Ole Diz," who has won three games and lost none this season, explained the slump of the National League champions into the second division by telling his listeners:

"The reason we're down where we are today is because the players are not pushing hard enough. Only two-thirds of us are doing our best. The rest of us ain't. If we are going to win, the penny the whole club has to be in there, trying."

The occasion for Dean's talk was a luncheon of the Greater Chicago Plan Committee which is attempting to raise $500,000 to make Chicago a year-round sports center. The guests numbered 500. Dean accused his teammates of nursing a defeatist complex.

"The Cubs will get into the World Series again if one-third of the team gets their heads in the game before the game starts," he said.

"Just let me pitch more often and everything will be okay," he explained. "I'm getting tired of pitching only on Sundays and hope that Manager Gabby Hartnett will put me in every two or three days just like when I worked for the Cardinals and pitched every other day. That'll do it."

Softball Umpires
JACKSON, Mich.—Softball officials all over the country who are having similar trouble might take their cue from John Roy and Tony Corvato, umpires in the Jackson Athletic Association Softball League, who have warned players and fans to calm down "or else."

"Practically every game is marred by petty arguments and vocal interference by spectators. As usually is the case, many players and fans don't know the rules and don't know what the rules call for as we see 'em," the arbiters claim. "If this petty bickering continues we're going to keep tossing people out of the game until it stops. In other words we're going to exercise our authority to the limit."

When the field jammed up like this on the heels of Sydney Wooderson, British track ace, it eventually cost him his chance for victory after he had led from the start in the climatic mile race at the annual Princeton track meet. Blaine Rideout (second from left above), of North Texas State, accidentally bumped Wooderson in an effort to pass him, with the result that the Englishman finished last. Chuck Fenske (running second, above) won. Glenn Cunningham (third above) took second place, Archie San Romani (fifth above) was third, and Rideout came fourth.

English Track Star Eclipsed

Winners Here Must Battle El Dorado Winners, Says Erion

In a conference with J. R. (Red) Gordon, District Softball Commissioner for South Arkansas, the dates for inter-district competition were selected, it was announced by Earl W. Erion, District Softball Commissioner for the Hope district.

The two winners of the district tournament in the Hope area will meet the two winners of the El Dorado area on Tuesday night, August 22, at Hope.

The winning teams will play another series in El Dorado on Thursday night to determine the two teams that will go to Little Rock. This tournament, like all the other district tournaments this year, is on a double elimination basis, thus allowing a team to lose a game and still have a chance to go to Little Rock.

The District tournament will be held in Hope, will also be of the double elimination type and will begin on August 16.

Robber Gets $300 in Texarkana Holdup

Three Persons Tied Up at Investment Company Office

TEXARKANA.—A lone, polite gunman perpetrated a noon-day holdup of the Commercial Investment Trust Company offices here Tuesday and obtained $300 after trussing up three persons.

W. C. Buford, manager, and Miss Ann Neef and Miss Nancy Jo Kirby were bound with adhesive tape. Buford was forced to do the binding as the robber threatened him with a gun.

The two women were sitting at the desk near the entrance when the robber, his face partly covered with a handkerchief and a hat pulled over his face, entered the room. "He told us to lie on the floor," Miss Neef said.

Buford said the man handed a roll of one-inch adhesive to him and told him to "tape the girls up."

"I taped their hands behind them and their mouths," he said, "while the bandit held a gun on me—and it was the biggest gun I have ever seen."

Then the intruder stepped to the cash drawer and took approximately $300.

The company's offices are on the eighth floor of the National Bank building.

Amazing Tabby

WASHOUCAL, Wash.—(AP)—Splatters, a purebred Persian cat, goes in for the unusual. She celebrated her 18th birthday recently by having a litter of healthy kittens. Later, when a neighbor's rabbit deserted its day-old bunnies, Splatters came to the rescue—mothering them carefully despite the theory infant rabbits are an epicurean treat to cats.

Five-Man Team Wins National Collegiate

Moore took a five-man team to the National Collegiate in 33 and amazed everyone by going home with the title. The quintet consisted of the giant Jack Torrance, world record holder in the shot put; Slat Hardin, '32 and '36 Olympic hurdler; Al Moreau, a great high hurdler; Bud Gordy, quite a pole vaulter; and Matt Blair, javelin thrower.

Hardin won the 400-meter hurdle crown in the '36 Olympics in Berlin.

Moore is now getting another potential champion ready for the '40 games in Helsinki.

An eager, though somewhat scared, 17-year-old high school boy of Baker, La., was the baby member of Uncle Sam's Olympic contingent which visited Uncle Den Linden in '36. He had made the squad as a hop, step, and jump contestant.

His name was Billy Brown, and although he consistently did 48 feet, it wasn't good enough to beat the little

Legal Notice

NOTICE OF BOND SALE

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN That on Thursday, the 20th day of June, 1939, the County Court of Hempstead County, in the State of Arkansas, will offer for sale to the highest bidder, at the County Court Room in the City Hall in the City of Hope, Arkansas, One Hundred Ten Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00) of bonds issued for the purpose of financing part of the cost of constructing a combined County Court House and Jail, dated December 1, 1938, bearing interest at the rate of four percent per annum, payable semi-annually on the 1st day of June and December each year, and to mature serially on the 1st day of December of each year as follows:

$2,000.00 in each of the years 1940 to 1945, inclusive,
$3,000.00 in each of the years 1946 to 1952, inclusive,
$4,000.00 in each of the years 1953 to 1959, inclusive,
$5,000.00 in each of the years 1960 to 1964, inclusive and
$6,000.00 in each of the years 1965 to 1968 inclusive.

Said bonds will be received by Frank Rider, County Judge, at the County Court Room in the City Hall of the City of Hope, Arkansas, up to 2:00 o'clock p. m., on the day of the sale, at which time such bids will be publicly opened.

Said bonds will be sold at not less than par plus accrued interest to the date of delivery, the purchase price to be paid to the County Treasurer of Hempstead County, Arkansas. The purchaser will have the privilege, prior to the issuance of said bonds, of converting said bonds to an issue of bonds bearing a lower rate of interest and maturing in the years as above stated, provided the total cost of bonds and interest to the County shall not exceed that of the bonds above described.

The County will furnish the printed bonds and the opinion of Rose, Loughborough, Dobyns & House, approving their legality. Bids shall be accompanied by certified check of $2,500.00 payable to the County, to be its liquidated damages if the bidder fails to make good his bid. The County reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

Any prospective purchaser may secure further desired information concerning said bonds and their sale from Frank Rider, County Judge of Hempstead County, Arkansas, at Hope, Arkansas.

This notice is given pursuant to order of said court made and entered on this date.

Witness my hand and seal as clerk of said court on this 7th day of June, 1939.

(Seal) FRANK J. HILL, Clerk.

June 7-14-21.

WARNING ORDER

No. 5308. In the Chancery Court of Hempstead County, Ark.

Gertrude Watters..... Plaintiff

vs.

Fred Watters..... Defendant

The Defendant, Fred Watters, is warned to appear in this court within thirty days and answer the complaint of the Plaintiff, Gertrude Watters.

Witness my hand and the seal of said court this 10th day of June, 1939.

(Seal) RALPH BAILEY, Clerk.

By J. P. BYERS, D. C.

Royce Weisenberger,

Attorney for Plaintiff.

E. F. McPadden, attorney ad litem.

June 13-20-27 July 3.

English Track Star Eclipsed

When the field jammed up like this on the heels of Sydney Wooderson, British track ace, it eventually cost him his chance for victory after he had led from the start in the climatic mile race at the annual Princeton track meet. Blaine Rideout (second from left above), of North Texas State, accidentally bumped Wooderson in an effort to pass him, with the result that the Englishman finished last. Chuck Fenske (running second, above) won. Glenn Cunningham (third above) took second place, Archie San Romani (fifth above) was third, and Rideout came fourth.

Testimony Heard in Buckner Trial

Wine, Whisky and Sea Food Vouchers Presented in Court

NEW YORK.—(AP)—Champagne and lobster were on Bill Buckner's diet two summers ago when he headed a Philippine railway bondholders' committee, a witness testified in federal court, where the dashing young promoter and four others are being tried on mail fraud charges.

Spectators chuckled as Dorothy Mattox of the Hotel St. Regis staff identified vouchers showing that in July, 1937, Buckner and William J. Gillespie, a co-defendant, bought lavishly of fine wines, Scotch whiskies and sea foods. Also there was an item of $29 for a broken chair.

The government contends that Buckner, known formally as William P. J., defrauded holders of the railroad bonds by wasting their money in high living while he ostensibly was working to get the Philippine government to redeem the defaulted issues.

Also on trial are a Filipino senator, Felipe Buencamino; John Stuart Hyde, British movie figure, and C. Wesley Turner, broker.

The lavish living was not confined to New York, the government contended, introducing evidence that from July 12 to August 19 Buckner and Gillespie ran up a $1,556 bill at the Carlton hotel in Washington. Among a series of Scotch and champagne items, there was one for a 25-cent headache remedy.

John Minton, Buckner's lawyer, interrupted to remark that Buckner and Gillespie were "obviously hospitable," referring to the defense contention that Buckner was lobbying for legislation favorable to the bond redemption—which never went through.

"Speaking of hospitality, what about the poor bondholders?" rejoined Assistant United States Attorney William Power Maloney.

Softball Umpires
JACKSON, Mich.—Softball officials all over the country who are having similar trouble might take their cue from John Roy and Tony Corvato, umpires in the Jackson Athletic Association Softball League, who have warned players and fans to calm down "or else."

"Practically every game is marred by petty arguments and vocal interference by spectators. As usually is the case, many players and fans don't know the rules and don't know what the rules call for as we see 'em," the arbiters claim. "If this petty bickering continues we're going to keep tossing people out of the game until it stops. In other words we're going to exercise our authority to the limit."

When the field jammed up like this on the heels of Sydney Wooderson, British track ace, it eventually cost him his chance for victory after he had led from the start in the climatic mile race at the annual Princeton track meet. Blaine Rideout (second from left above), of North Texas State, accidentally bumped Wooderson in an effort to pass him, with the result that the Englishman finished last. Chuck Fenske (running second, above) won. Glenn Cunningham (third above) took second place, Archie San Romani (fifth above) was third, and Rideout came fourth.

English Track Star Eclipsed

Winners Here Must Battle El Dorado Winners, Says Erion

In a conference with J. R. (Red) Gordon, District Softball Commissioner for South Arkansas, the dates for inter-district competition were selected, it was announced by Earl W. Erion, District Softball Commissioner for the Hope district.

The two winners of the district tournament in the Hope area will meet the two winners of the El Dorado area on Tuesday night, August 22, at Hope.

The winning teams will play another series in El Dorado on Thursday night to determine the two teams that will go to Little Rock. This tournament, like all the other district tournaments this year, is on a double elimination basis, thus allowing a team to lose a game and still have a chance to go to Little Rock.

The District tournament will be held in Hope, will also be of the double elimination type and will begin on August 16.

Robber Gets $300 in Texarkana Holdup

Three Persons Tied Up at Investment Company Office

TEXARKANA.—A lone, polite gunman perpetrated a noon-day holdup of the Commercial Investment Trust Company offices here Tuesday and obtained $300 after trussing up three persons.

W. C. Buford, manager, and Miss Ann Neef and Miss Nancy Jo Kirby were bound with adhesive tape. Buford was forced to do the binding as the robber threatened him with a gun.

The two women were sitting at the desk near the entrance when the robber, his face partly covered with a handkerchief and a hat pulled over his face, entered the room. "He told us to lie on the floor," Miss Neef said.

Buford said the man handed a roll of one-inch adhesive to him and told him to "tape the girls up."

"I taped their hands behind them and their mouths," he said, "while the bandit held a gun on me—and it was the biggest gun I have ever seen."

Then the intruder stepped to the cash drawer and took approximately $300.

The company's offices are on the eighth floor of the National Bank building.

Amazing Tabby

WASHOUCAL, Wash.—(AP)—Splatters, a purebred Persian cat, goes in for the unusual. She celebrated her 18th birthday recently by having a litter of healthy kittens. Later, when a neighbor's rabbit deserted its day-old bunnies, Splatters came to the rescue—mothering them carefully despite the theory infant rabbits are an epicurean treat to cats.

Five-Man Team Wins National Collegiate

Moore took a five-man team to the National Collegiate in 33 and amazed everyone by going home with the title. The quintet consisted of the giant Jack Torrance, world record holder in the shot put; Slat Hardin, '32 and '36 Olympic hurdler; Al Moreau, a great high hurdler; Bud Gordy, quite a pole vaulter; and Matt Blair, javelin thrower.

Hardin won the 400-meter hurdle crown in the '36 Olympics in Berlin.

Moore is now getting another potential champion ready for the '40 games in Helsinki.

An eager, though somewhat scared, 17-year-old high school boy of Baker, La., was the baby member of Uncle Sam's Olympic contingent which visited Uncle Den Linden in '36. He had made the squad as a hop, step, and jump contestant.

His name was Billy Brown, and although he consistently did 48 feet, it wasn't good enough to beat the little

Legal Notice

NOTICE OF BOND SALE

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN That on Thursday, the 20th day of June, 1939, the County Court of Hempstead County, in the State of Arkansas, will offer for sale to the highest bidder, at the County Court Room in the City Hall in the City of Hope, Arkansas, One Hundred Ten Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00) of bonds issued for the purpose of financing part of the cost of constructing a combined County Court House and Jail, dated December 1, 1938, bearing interest at the rate of four percent per annum, payable semi-annually on the 1st day of June and December each year, and to mature serially on the 1st day of December of each year as follows:

$2,000.00 in each of the years 1940 to 1945, inclusive,
$3,000.00 in each of the years 1946 to 1952, inclusive,
$4,000.00 in each of the years 1953 to 1959, inclusive,
$5,000.00 in each of the years 1960 to 1964, inclusive and
$6,000.00 in each of the years 1965 to 1968 inclusive.

Said bonds will be received by Frank Rider, County Judge, at the County Court Room in the City Hall of the City of Hope, Arkansas, up to 2:00 o'clock p. m., on the day of the sale, at which time such bids will be publicly opened.

Said bonds will be sold at not less than par plus accrued interest to the date of delivery, the purchase price to be paid to the County Treasurer of Hempstead County, Arkansas. The purchaser will have the privilege, prior to the issuance of said bonds, of converting said bonds to an issue of bonds bearing a lower rate of interest and maturing in the years as above stated, provided the total cost of bonds and interest to the County shall not exceed that of the bonds above described.

The County will furnish the printed bonds and the opinion of Rose, Loughborough, Dobyns & House, approving their legality. Bids shall be accompanied by certified check of $2,500.00 payable to the County, to be its liquidated damages if the bidder fails to make good his bid. The County reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

Any prospective purchaser may secure further desired information concerning said bonds and their sale from Frank Rider, County Judge of Hempstead County, Arkansas, at Hope, Arkansas.

This notice is given pursuant to order of said court made and entered on this date.

Witness my hand and seal as clerk of said court on this 7th day of June, 1939.

(Seal) FRANK J. HILL, Clerk.

June 7-14-21.

WARNING ORDER

No. 5308. In the Chancery Court of Hempstead County, Ark.

Gertrude Watters..... Plaintiff

vs.

Fred Watters..... Defendant

The Defendant, Fred Watters, is warned to appear in this court within thirty days and answer the complaint of the Plaintiff, Gertrude Watters.

Witness my hand and the seal of said court this 10th day of June, 1939.

(Seal) RALPH BAILEY, Clerk.

By J. P. BYERS, D. C.

Royce Weisenberger,

Attorney for Plaintiff.

E. F. McPadden, attorney ad litem.

June 13-20-27 July 3.

Northern Baptists in Favor of Unity

Committee Authorized to Confer With 2 Branches of Church

LOS ANGELES, Calif.—(AP)—Pro-liminary moves toward union of Northern and Southern Baptists and development of a denominational program for social progress were made at the opening session of the Northern Baptist Convention.

The annual report of the General Council recommended a committee of the Northern Convention be authorized to confer with a similar group from the Southern church on plans for a joint meeting of the two branches in 1944.

The General Council recommended formation of a Council for Christian Social Progress composed of representatives of all important church agencies of the denomination to develop a social program. It would be empowered to "promote specific projects such as a crusade for temperance and morals, institutes on marriage and the home, aid to unemployed and war refugees and promotion of industrial reconciliation.

Recommendations are to be acted upon later in the week.

The 10,000 delegates and visitors, representing 8,000 churches in 32 states, heard their president, Arthur J. Hudson, declare they "should infuse dynamite into the church."

"The situation in which the world finds itself today is at its root spiritual and moral," Hudson, a Cleveland attorney, declared.

Emancipation Day Is Observed in Hope

Hope negroes observed Emancipation day Monday with a program at Oklahoma park, on the northeast side of the city, where two baseball games and other forms of entertainment was held.

Vancover, Wash.—(AP)—Building of a 500,000 bushel addition will make the Spokane, Portland and Seattle railroad grain elevator here the largest in the western section of the United States. The elevator's capacity will be 3,000,000 bushels, of which 2,700,000 will be bulk storage.

McCaskill

Mrs. Minch Hyatt of Nashville visited relatives here this week.

Reese Hamilton left Wednesday for Mt. Pleasant, Mich., after spending a two weeks vacation here.

Arline Wortham of Prescott visited her mother, Mrs. Dora Wortham last Sunday.

Mrs. Julia Smith Collins of Little Rock spent the week-end visiting her sister Mrs. Claude Bradley.

Miss Dulsie Rhodes left last Sunday for a three weeks visit with relatives in Port Arthur, Texas.

Miss Iris Hampton returned home Sunday after a two weeks visit in Smackover and El Dorado.

Mrs. Avie Orr and family spent the week-end visiting relatives in Ozark.

Miss Nona Mangum of Hope visited her cousin Marquerite Long Thursday.

Mrs. Emma Ethridge of Nashville is visiting her son, Frank this week.

D. B. McCaskill and sons Chester of this place and Gus of Prescott, visited relatives in Tennessee this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Mooss and Myrtle Moses of Benton were at home for the Friendship singing.

Mrs. Tigie Munster and little son, Steve of Luling, Texas, visited her

Dates Announced for Softball Play

Winners Here Must Battle El Dorado Winners, Says Erion

In a conference with J. R. (Red) Gordon, District Softball Commissioner for South Arkansas, the dates for inter-district competition were selected, it was announced by Earl W. Erion, District Softball Commissioner for the Hope district.

The two winners of the district tournament in the Hope area will meet the two winners of the El Dorado area on Tuesday night, August 22, at Hope.

The winning teams will play another series in El Dorado on Thursday night to determine the two teams that will go to Little Rock. This tournament, like all the other district tournaments this year, is on a double elimination basis, thus allowing a team to lose a game and still have a chance to go to Little Rock.

The District tournament will be held in Hope, will also be of the double elimination type and will begin on August 16.

Mrs. Anderson Is Given Life Term

Jury Returns Verdict in Cooley Robbery-Slaying Case

HOT SPRINGS, Ark.—(AP)—Mrs. Lucille Anderson, 34, of New Albany, Ind., was convicted of murder for a second time in Circuit Court here Tuesday night, and her punishment fixed at life imprisonment. She was indicted in connection with the robbery-slaying of Eldon Cooley, Hot Springs grocery chain executive, last September.

Mrs. Anderson's husband, Joe Anderson, and Alfred (Pug) Dickson have been electrocuted for the murder of Co

Elmira Limbers Up Neck for Annual Glider Contest

By T. J. McCARTHY
NEA Service Special Correspondent
ELMIRA, N. Y.—The daring young men in the motorless gliders will be soaring through the air with the greatest of ease hereabouts on June 24.

Nearly 200 of them will assemble at Harris Hill for the Tenth Annual National Soaring Contest, and for 15 days pit their skill and technique against the whims of the upper air currents. About a score have come all the way from California to compete under the ideal conditions offered by the Chemung Valley of southern New York state.

The entries will set a new record, representing an increase of 25 per cent over the previous high for an American soaring contest. The widespread development of public interest in aviation is regarded as the reason.

Each year for the past decade American soaring pilots have met in Elmira for their annual contest. The high hills with flat tops surrounding the city offer perfect sites for launching of the motorless craft. After taking off from a hilltop, the sail planes ride slope currents or "thermals," rising masses of warm air.

Thousands in Prizes
Between $5000 and $10,000 will be distributed at the end of the contest, July 2, besides a large number of trophies. Chief among the awards will be the Vincent Bendix prizes for the longest flights.

The pilot who has the best record will receive $500 in cash and a gold cup. Silver and bronze trophies go to second and third places. The national soaring distance record is broken by the winner, the cash award will be $1000.

Motorless flight offers thrills at little cost, as well as invaluable training in "navigating" the air. The Germans proved after the World war that it was unnecessary to have powered planes in order to fly.

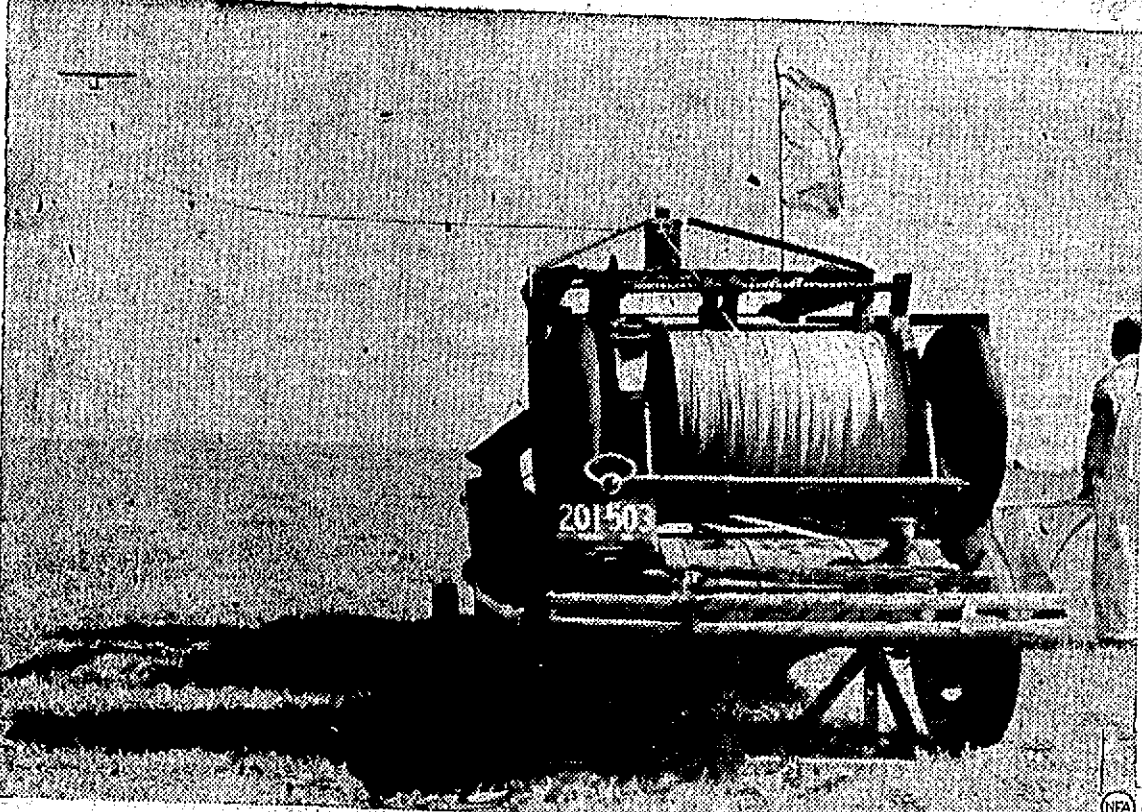

Prohibited from owning airplanes under the Versailles Treaty, the German pilots turned to the type of craft with which Orville and Wilbur Wright experimented before they made their first engine-propelled flight.

Construction of a glider or sailplane is not complicated or expensive. Young men with enthusiasm for flying can build a motorless craft in a garage can back yard. With competent instruction, the training course is not tedious. After learning to pilot a glider, the enthusiast is not faced with the expense of gasoline or engine repairs.

Soaring Du Pont
Some pilots like Richard C. duPont, zion of the wealthy industrial family, look upon soaring as the greatest thrill in aviation. A licensed airplane pilot, duPont has been the American leader in soaring for several years—and was twice national champion.

Others entered in the contest are preparing for careers as aeronautical engineers. Students from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, University of Michigan, Purdue University, Carnegie Institute of Technology and other institutions, who have built gliders and sailplanes as part of their study of aerodynamics, will test their theories.

Although soaring is purely a sport, it is recognized for its scientific value. The National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics will have representatives at the Elmira meet. The Army Air Corps will send an official observer. Engineers and heads of many of the leading aircraft manufacturing corporations will attend.

A winch tow for a motorless plane. The pilot of the glider, upper left, releases the rope when he gains sufficient altitude to ride the currents at Harris Hill, near Elmira, N. Y.

Tokio

J. R. Thompson of Bingen attended the singing at Sweet Home Sunday. Earl Holt of Bingen attended the singing here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Stewart and children of Hot Springs attended the singing at Sweet Home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Higgins and son, Doyle, of Hot Springs, visited here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. McLarty and children visited Mr. and Mrs. C. M. McMullen at Texarkana, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Cooley and children of Corvint visited relatives here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Womack of Murfreesboro attended the singing at Sweet Home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Bohn and daughters of Murfreesboro were at the singing Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Woods and children and Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Cooley and baby of Arkadelphia visited their parents here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Compton and children of Doyle visited relatives here Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. McLarty and children of Nashville visited relatives here Sunday.

Alex Sanford of Cooper, Texas, attended the singing at Sweet Home Sunday.

Harold Hutson of Ozan attended singing at Sweet Home Sunday.

Sam Fumster of County Line attended singing here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Lair of County Line visited here Sunday.

C. W. McLarty of Nashville visited here Sunday.

Trace Morris of Nashville visited relatives here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stewart of Hot Springs visited relatives here Sunday. Bill Lay of Nashville was here on business Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hushel Wisdom of Hot Springs visited relatives here Sunday.

Mrs. Truman Jones of Elk City, Okla., visited Mr. and Mrs. George McLarty Thursday.

Rev. A. N. Youngblood and children of Pike visited relatives here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Dunnaway and children of Belton visited relatives here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Blackwood of Bingen visited their son, Robert Blackwood, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Larkin Bohannon of Nashville visited relatives here Sunday.

L. R. Jones and wife of Pump Springs attended the singing Sunday.

Four Elmira College co-eds at Elmira, N. Y., inspect the sailplane of annual glider meet at Elmira, June 24. The girls are, left to right, Evelyn Sweet, Martha Post, Eleanor Schwab, and Mary Lou Wright.

business Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Burris of Belton visited relatives here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Stewart of Mountain Pine visited relatives here Sunday.

Miss Della Jo Marlar of Hope spent last week with her sister Mrs. Irby Maroon and Mr. Maroon.

Chemurgy in College
DENTON, Texas.—(AP)—A course in chemurgy, new science of finding new uses for farm products, will be offered this summer at North Texas State Teachers College. The announcement said it is one of the first courses of its kind to be offered by any American college.

Strikebound Romance

Overjoyed at this picketing business is Ray Carter, proprietor of one-man jewelry at Kansas City, Mo., who has tried to make things comfortable for 22-year-old Carol Harris since she started beat in front of his shop in December, 1938. But Miss Harris, still intent on job, hides face with newspaper. Because he likes the picket Carter refuses to join the union.

Washington Daybook

By PRESTON GROVER

WASHINGTON — A current inner-circle story about Postmaster General Farley says that he went on his western tour to sound out party leaders on his own possibilities and ran into such a swell of third term talk that his journey became almost a torch for President Roosevelt.

It turns the story of John Alden and Miles Standish into reverse. In that Pilgrim fable, John Alden went to the snow-covered cottage of the beautiful Priscilla to propose to her on behalf of his fighting friend Standish.

"Why don't you speak for yourself, John," said Priscilla, and the embarrassed young fellow backed out into the chill air, torn between loyalty to Standish and a desire to ask the prize for himself.

Democratic partisans insist Farley took his western swing to see whether his own enormous popularity could be converted into state delegations to support him in a bid for the presidential nomination. It was during an appearance in Arizona that he appears to have been left with the choice either of speaking out for himself or reaffirming for President Roosevelt.

Farley's Loyal
Nobody around here doubts Farley's loyalty either to the President or to the party. Rather than thrust his own case forward at the risk of party dis-harmony, he abandoned the quest for support for himself.

The wave of third term talk was no surprise here. The boom for Vice-President Garner precipitated it. Garner is looked upon here as the magnet for those in the Democratic party opposed to outstanding Roosevelt policies. Too much Garner boom would have spelled almost a repudiation of the New Deal. A countering wave naturally would have come anyway.

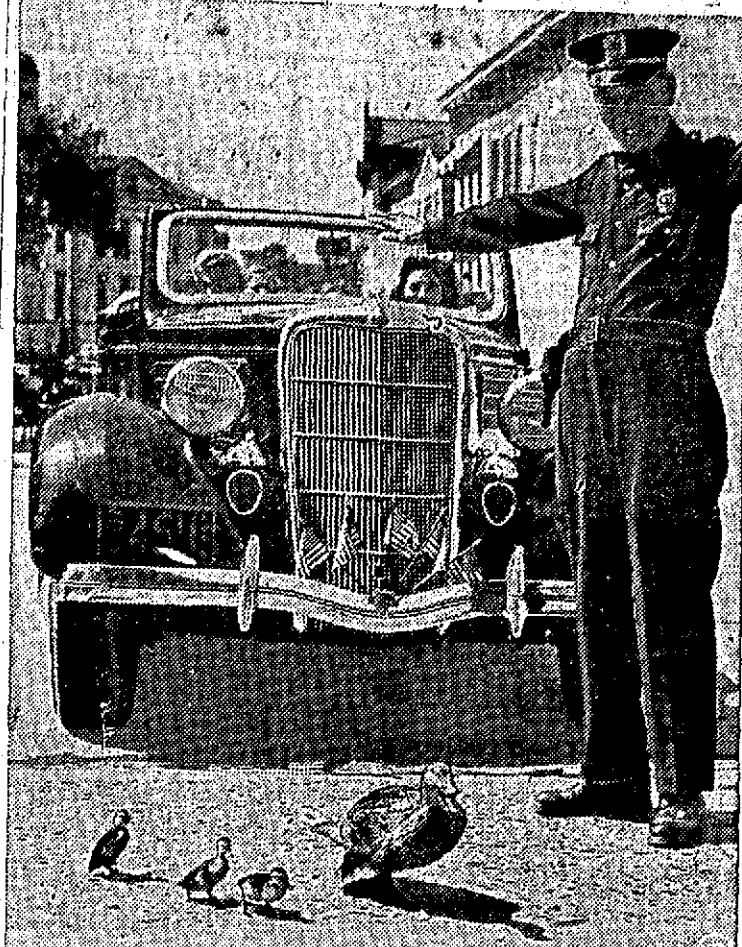

Speculating too far ahead on the outcome either of the Garner boom or of a move for a third term for President Roosevelt is useless business. Only one thing appears to be agreed upon in both camps. That is that no candidate can be nominated without the consent of the President.

Position of Power
For the President that is a highly strategic position. It reserves power for him, both in dealing with Congress and in the determination of a Democratic presidential candidate in 1940. His forthcoming trip through the West then, has two values. It will give him an opportunity to sound out for himself by backtracking the great demand for him to run for a third term. In turn it will build up his own position, for previous experience has demonstrated that where his foot trends more Democratic grass grows.

Incidentally, Garner's doings continue to be a mystery second only to that of whether President Roosevelt will seek a third term. Everyone who talks to him comes away believing that Garner wants it very well understood that he is seriously after the nomination. He hasn't announced his candidacy and perhaps won't. He didn't announce for a presidential in 1932 although he had two important delegations committed to him.

We see but little more than one-half of the moon's surface, since it always keeps the same side toward us, but this visible portion has been plotted so carefully in drawings that not one peak or crater has been missed.

Ducking the Heavy Traffic

Not the least prominent of the citizens of Newton, N. J., is "Fanny," Sussex County's tame duck. Here Fanny, leading her children of summer, 1939, strolls across Main street in Newton, while an obliging cop holds up traffic for her.

Dramatic Club to Meet On Thursday

"Little Theater" Group to Begin Rehearsals on Plays

The "Little Theater" will meet at the city hall Thursday morning at 9 a.m. for the rehearsal of the plays, "How white" and "Little Red Riding Hood." The casts for the plays, "Ghosts in the Boarding House" and "Sambo's Party" will have their regular rehearsal at 2 p. m.

Both groups are members of the Amateur Dramatic club which is under the supervision of Miss Lois Lamb. This club has been organized in the community to afford every individual an opportunity for actual participation in no matter how limited their range of abilities.

The objective is to show the aims and satisfaction that amateur dramatists can offer as well as encourage the development of latent talent that lies in all of us.

Whipping as a punishment for crime in Ohio gave way to the penitentiary system in 1815.

GOOD FOR MALARIA!

—And Malaria Chills and Fever!

Here's what you want for Malaria, folks! Here's what you want for the awful chills and fever of malaria. It's Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic! A real Malaria medicine. Made especially for the purpose. Contains tasteless quinine and iron. Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic actually combats the Malaria infection in the blood. It relieves the freezing chills, the burning fever, it helps you feel better fast.

Thousands take Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for Malaria and swear by it. Pleasant to take, too. Even children take it without a whimper. Don't suffer! At first sign of Malaria, take Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. At all drugstores. Buy the large size as it gives you much more for your money.

SEE THE GENERAL MOTORS EXHIBITS AT THE NEW YORK AND SAN FRANCISCO FAIRS

How to Save Your Summer from the Doldrums

The model illustrated is the Buick Special model 41 four-door touring sedan $894 delivered at Flint, Mich.*

It won't be long now before the papers start shouting "Heat Wave." What we want to know is, where will that find you?

Stretched out in the hammock, vainly seeking comfort in a pitcher of lemonade? Or out where the cool wind's blowing, having the kind of fun that summer's made for?

If there's one of these dashing and dependable Buick beauties parked in your garage, we can tell you right now—you won't waste this summer just hanging around the old homestead.

You'll park yourself behind its hundred-plus horsepower Dynaflex engine and step out to make your own breezes!

ONLY BUICK HAS IT! This sure-fire direction signal that flashes warnings of turns at a flip of a switch! Shows day or night. Standard on all models!

You'll sit back in Buick's cushioned comfort—and take in nature's beauties through wide-open windows that let in more air as well as more view.

And you'll find that in this great car you've got one of the best vacation bargains you've ever met up with. It's surprising how far this money can stretch a gallon of gas—amazing how much it does on how little.

As for first cost—you know by this time, or certainly should, that this big straight-eight costs less than a year ago, less than you'd think, less even than some sixes.

Drop in and let us show you how many so-called "extras" those low prices include, and you'll take steps right now to save your summer from the hot-weather doldrums.

"Better buy Buick!"
EXEMPLAR OF GENERAL MOTORS VALUE

HOT WEATHER SPECIALS

Gypsy Tan Oil 50c
Immediate Tanning Without Burning.

Liquid Deodorant 39c
A single application lasts several days.

REXALL
Deodorant Cream 50c
Retards Perspiration and Body Odors.

100 pint size AGAREX 89c
Palatable emulsion. A mild laxative.

75c pint size Puretest Mineral Oil 59c
Mechanical lubrication to relieve constipation.

39c size Puretest SODIUM PERBORATE 29c
Helpful in combating gum irritations.

Pack 25 Medford RAZOR BLADES 19c
Double-edge. Extra keen. Guaranteed.

Puretest Bubbling ALCOHOL Full Pint 50c
Cools and Refreshes

SANI-FED
Foot Products 25c to 50c
REX "75"

Golf Balls 50c
Be out in front with this liquid center golf ball.

Lavender Mentholated Shaving Cream 35c
"Air Cooled"

Klenzo Cloth 50c
Cleans, Polishes. Guaranteed.

REXALL
Gypsy Cream 39c
Takes the burn out of sunburn.

Summer Ailments
Don't let summer ailments rob you of your summer pleasures. See your doctor and when prescriptions are needed bring them to us. 53 years of service guarantees you accuracy.

JOHN S. GIBSON

DRUG COMPANY
Phone 63—We Deliver
South Elm Street Hope, Arkansas

207 East Third St.

Hempstead Motor Co.

MAX COX, OWNER

Hope Arkansas

YOU GET A BETTER USED CAR FROM A BUICK DEALER

One Dead and Much Damage in Flood

200 to 300 Families Are Driven From Homes in Texas Area

COLORADO CITY, Texas.—(AP)—Cloudburst-swollen streams of West Texas drowned one person Tuesday swept away highway and railroad bridges and drove between 200 and 300 families from their homes here and at nearby Snyder, Ollie, Morrow, 60 Snyder business man, was drowned by a flash flood which swept him from a bridge.

The Colorado river battered down a railroad bridge and a highway bridge, and destroyed two smaller spans. Rail and highway traffic was at a standstill here.

A few minutes before the railroad bridge washed out, a Texas and Pacific passenger train was halted after trainmen saw water lap up two feet below the floor of the trestle. Hundreds of bales of cotton and debris hammered at the bridge pilings until the structure collapsed. Eight cars of fuel oil, shunted to the bridge in an effort to give it stability, fell into the torrent.

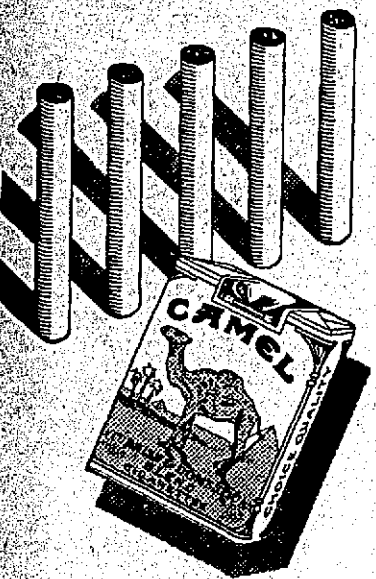

Colorado City, a town of 5,000 about 250 miles west of Dallas, watched flood waters back into the residence district up a normally small creek, that empties into the Colorado. Two hundred Mexican and negro families fled to higher ground here. Snyder Red Cross officials, asked aid for 50 persons left homeless when flood waters washed their houses away.

Thunderstorms dumping up to 11 inches of rain caused the floods. Water at Snyder, a town of 3,500, rose so

By burning 25% slower than the average of the 15 other of the largest-selling brands tested—slower than any of them—CAMELS give smokers the equivalent of

5

EXTRA SMOKES PER PACK

MORE smoking—better smoking—thrifting smoking...Which cigarette offers all of them? Read 3 important cigarette facts revealed by scientific tests on 16 of the largest-selling brands:

1 CAMELS were found to contain MORE TOBACCO BY WEIGHT than the average for the 15 other of the largest-selling brands.

2 CAMELS BURNED SLOWER THAN ANY OTHER BRAND TESTED—25% SLOWER THAN THE AVERAGE TIME OF THE 15 OTHER OF THE LARGEST-SELLING BRANDS! By burning 25% slower, on the average, Camels give smokers the equivalent of 5 EXTRA SMOKES PER PACK!

3 In the same tests, CAMELS HELD THEIR ASH FAR LONGER than the average for the other brands.

Thanks to Camel's economy, everyone can enjoy the real thrills in smoking...the coolness, mildness, delicate taste...the added bonus of Camel's costlier tobaccos. Don't miss the smoking America rates No. 1.

THE CIGARETTE OF COSTLIER TOBACCOS

CAMEL PENNY FOR PENNY YOUR BEST CIGARETTE BUY!

SERIAL STORY

BRIDE ON A BUDGET

BY JANET DORAN

COPYRIGHT 1939, NEA SERVICE, INC.

Yesterday, Bart, lost his money when installment buyers fail to pay. He is worse. Then he catches a severe cold, is delirious and Iris sends for a doctor.

CHAPTER XII

IRIS rode down to the hospital in Dr. Pitcher's coupe, right behind the ambulance. It would do no good, as the doctor pointed out. Mr. Whitaker would not know anyone for several days to come. He was a very sick man. "Business troubles?" he had asked Iris, in this little living room, after examining Bart. After telling her bluntly her husband had pneumonia.

"Yes," she said faintly. "Well you look like a sensible young lady. You go right down to your job and hold things together. If worry got him into this state, then he'll recover a lot quicker, when he begins to gain, if he knows you're keeping things running for him. You—ah—work in Dean Somers' office, I believe?"

"It was cold and blustery and there was a raw, after-rain bite to the fall wind, but Iris walked all the way from the hospital to the office. And at noon, after she talked with Ellen Trent, she took the coat back.

"This was what Bart worried about, Iris, you see. Budget payments are fine if everything runs smooth. If nobody is sick, and everyone keeps working. Or if you've a reserve fund to fall back on."

That was what frightened her. No reserve fund. No money saved, no insurance, nothing to fall back on. And Bart sick. He'd have to stay in the hospital six weeks at least. There'd be the hospital and doctors to pay. She'd have to live. Maybe she'd have to be the sole support of the family for a long time. If Bart didn't recover from his illness fast.

During the days that followed, the serene order of Iris' former existence vanished forever.

To begin with, she went to the hospital morning, noon and night. And for five dreadful days, there was no change. For five days, she did not step foot in the room, or even get to the closed door with the nurse sitting on guard at the ward desk, outside. Pleasant, efficient, firm, the nurse was.

For those five days she lived in an awful nightmare of unreality. With worry, growing hydra-headed, every time she stopped working long enough to remember Bart. Remember how ill he was. Remember all that had happened, and all that was happening still to them.

THERE was the shop. The speed with which creditors pounced upon the little shop, attaching everything that wasn't already being claimed by rightful owners who had not yet been paid for merchandise, was frightening. There was the landlord, talking loud and very angry about three months rent overdue. There were bills, bills, everywhere, all of them due, long past due.

There was young Howard Lang, attorney at law, and boyhood friend of Bart's. And finally, there was no more shop, and peace. Except for the fact that Bart must be told. Sometime. When he was well again, when he was strong enough to bear knowing.

Meanwhile, there were her own tangled budgets. There was the Vogue Gown Shop, and the Misses' Budget Shop, and the Charlotte Shoppe.

Seated at the little table Bart had enameled for her, the first week of their marriage, Iris slipped a cup of hot tea, and nibbled but forgot a single item. The milk bill, the drugstore, the jeweler, where Bart had purchased the diamond ring. She had a staggering list when they were all set down. Enough to fairly kill her appetite. But she finished the last crumb of toast, poured out the remaining half cup of hot tea and drank it. Iris had made some momentous decisions.

In the morning, she asked Ellen about second-hand clothes buyers. And at noon, she went to the dry cleaning and second-hand clothes establishment.

"We'd have to see the garments, Madam," the man told her bluntly. "Sure we buy. But the price depends on the goods. People who buy second-hand clothes don't care about classy duds."

The amount she received was so much less than she had expected, Iris was tempted not to let the clothes go. She did really need them. But the bills drove her on. She sold them for what she could get, and took the money to pay on her budget accounts.

She sold the chair and smoking stand, and the furnishings in the apartment. Then she rented a big room with a double bed and comfortable chairs, and a small bath in Mrs. Brady's Boarding House. She moved in that Sunday.

A week from her return from her honeymoon-vacation, she moved in, and left word at the hospital that she could be reached at Mrs. Brady's telephone.

On Monday morning, she took the diamond back and received $20, since Bart had the ring almost paid for. The $20 cleared up an account she had been unable to pay anything on after selling the greater part of her wardrobe.

Through all the trouble and confusion of those days Iris never missed her friends. Or noticed that they were curiously occupied, curiously busy, and too concerned with their own affairs to know what was happening to her, or what she was doing. And when it was all over, when the shop was closed, and a FOR RENT sign on the door, when the apartment was dismantled, and TO LET blazoned the street windows, when she was settled in her single room at Mrs. Brady's and getting ready to go to the hospital to see Bart, again, Iris remembered.

Bitterness crept over her, as she realized how often Yolander and Ho, John and Marcella, and Ellen and John, as well as Don and his wife dropped in on them, called them for bridge, dancing, the movies, or dinner through each week. Bitterness filled her throat with a hard lump and tears burned along her eyelids. Then her head came up, and her chin set at a stubborn angle. All right. Let them. Bart was right.

COMING into the hospital, that morning to see Bart, Iris was met by a smiling nurse. "Good news for you this morning, Mrs. Whitaker. You're to see that big husband of yours for a little while. But you'll remember not to excite or worry him won't you? And not to stay too long."

Inside the quiet, dim room that was much too cold for comfort, Iris stood by the high white iron bed and felt her eyes blurring so she couldn't see Bart at all. Then his hand, thin but warm, found hers and closed around it tightly. Silently, she stood thus. Silently, while a deep vast prayer of gratitude swelled in Iris' heart, swept up to engulf her, until it pounded and beat in her ears like thunder.

"Darling," she whispered shakily, "I'm so glad I can see you." "Stand by honey," Bart tried to grin and decided it was too much work, but his dark eyes clung to her face as if hungry for every dearly beloved, familiar feature he had remembered, "everything's going to be O. K. now."

"Of course, darling," Iris said steadily, "there aren't any more bills now, Bart. And when you're home again, you'll be surprised at how I can run that budget book. I'm getting all practiced up now."

He grinned then. "Wife," he said. Dimly, Iris understood. Dimly she realized that her days of being a bride, a foolish, spendthrift, extravagant bride were past. Dimly she realized that Bart understood. And peace came to her soul.

(The End)

Paul Harrison in Hollywood

G-Men in Hollywood Neighborhood, and Not Just to See the Movies

HOLLYWOOD.—Short takes: Among the subjects of federal investigation here which brought out J. Edgar Hoover and some of his super-snoopers are the gambling ships anchored just outside the territorial limit.

Small boats ply back and forth between shore and those floating casinos, which are on the free, big seas, without any customs or immigration inspection. What, then, is to prevent the smuggling of goods or, more dangerously, aliens into the United States? A foreigner with money could board a gambling ship from another craft, play roulette a while, and ride to shore in a water taxi along with the crowds of home-bound suckers. The federal government could sink the gambling-ship business quickly enough by imposing on all patrons the strict inspections and restriction enforced at major ports of entry. And it may.

Ika Chase nearly got the role that Rosalind Russell plays in "The Women," so when Miss Russell fumbles as an assistant. "See if you can get Ika Chase to come out and play this scene." But Cukor, if you recall, was replaced by Victor Fleming as the director of "Gone With the Wind." So Miss Russell calls to the same assistant. "Telephone Mr. Fleming and ask when he's going to take over this picture."

Busiest actor in town now is Alan Hale, who's sprinting between Warner sound stages to play simultaneous roles in "Elizabeth and Essex," "Dust Be My Destiny," and "Career Man."

Out at 20th-Fox, Kane Richmond is playing in two pictures, but is a policeman in each one. All that he has to change between sets is his badge.

Gene Autry, top-hand of the westerns, has a new Republic contract permitting him to make one picture a year at another studio. And three major companies are bidding for it.

Richard Barthelmess, as a result of his rave performance in "Only Angels Have Wings," is talking terms for a new for a new career.

Marquee sign of the week: "Made for Each Other"—Carole Lombard—Donald Duck. . . . Sign on a negro's shine stand: "Pedal habiliments artistically lubricated with ambidextrous facility for the infinitesimal remuneration of 10 cents."

For eight years the Signal Corps of the U. S. Army has assigned officers and men to study Hollywood film production with the idea of making pictorial records and propaganda movies in the event of war. Now the Air Corps is sending technicians here to learn how such effective aviation pictures are made.

Dick Powell has given his small son

Farm Water Systems
Easy FHA Terms
Harry W. Shiver
PLUMBING PHONE 259

SAVES!
on Electricity

Famous Sealed-in ECONOMIZER
Mechanism

10 hours out of 12
it uses no current at all

Westinghouse
REFRIGERATOR
See it today...at
See Our Window Demonstration
Hope Hardware Co.

Pine Bluff Bank to Pay $40,000 Dividend

PINE BLUFF.—Directors of the Simmons National bank have declared a 10 per cent semiannual dividend of $4,000, payable to stock holders July 1. The payment will bring to $21,253,000 the total of cash dividends distributed since the bank was organized in 1903. Stockholders also have received a total of 100 per cent stock dividend, amounting to $200,000.

Norman a silver comb bearing this inscription: "Don't let Hollywood get in your hair."

John Payne and Claire Trevor, who were listed to prominence in "Stagecoach," will meet again in "Pennsylvania Uprising," a pre-revolutionary story. . . . A further description of Basil Rathbone than "two profiles pasted together" is this: "He looks like a well-scribbled vulture."

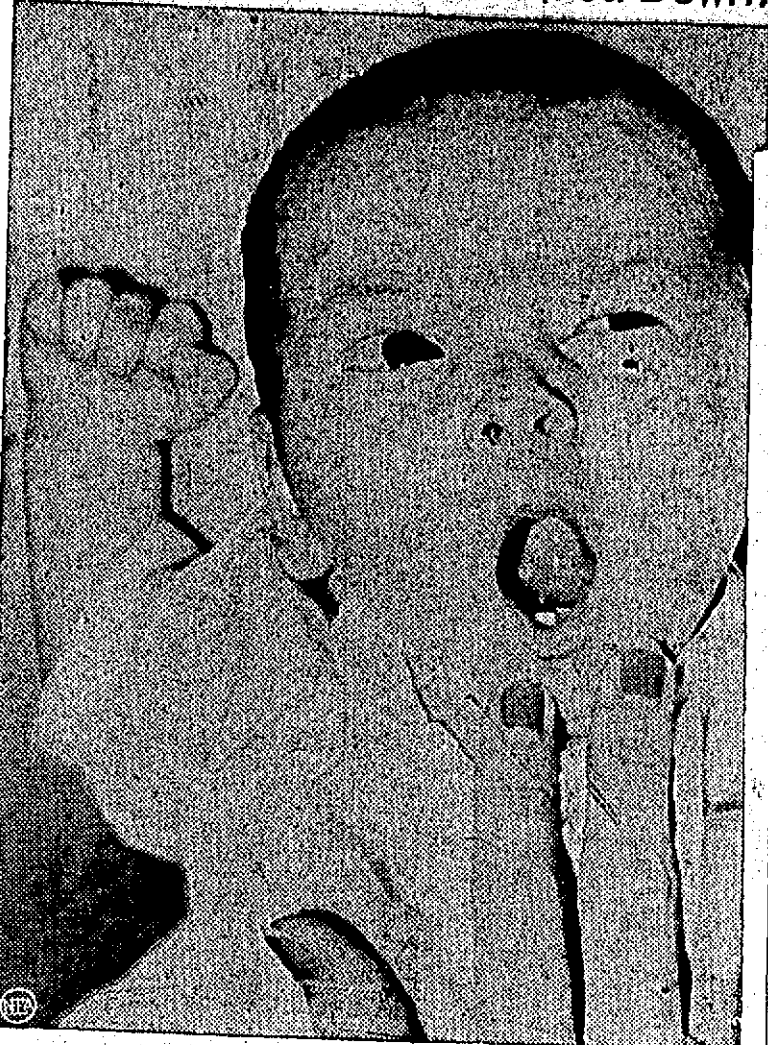

Too Ill to Die Today
Nigel Bruce is supposed to die in "The Rains Came," but when they reached that scene someone at his home called the studio and said, "Mr. Bruce says to tell you that he is too ill to die today." . . . For the same picture, the flood and storm scenes were postponed for a week because the sun didn't shine.

Earnest young students of dramatic enunciation are going around spouting tongue-twisters again. Some new ones: "The short short shoot straight through." "Old oily Ollie oils old oily autos." "Soldiers' shoulders shudder when shells shells shudder."

The growing report that a moneyed group financed the purchase of "Grapes of Wrath" to keep it from the screen is silly. It can't be suppressed that way because the author's contract provides that if it is not filmed within a certain time the rights will revert to him for resale.

North Carolina in 1939 still had 42 old style covered bridges, 32 of them in Randolph county.

'Stand Back--Or I'll Mow You Down!'

Don't come too close, or 3-week-old Raymond Dean Kimbrell of Chattanooga, Tenn., will swing that fist on your jaw. "Kid" Raymond looks mighty serious about protecting that fully-developed tooth he had at birth.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning!
The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile isn't flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels, and blows up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.
A more level movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. 25 cents. Stubbornly refuse anything else.

SERIOUS BUSINESS

The filling of PRESCRIPTIONS is a serious business. Your Druggist must know the dosage of every chemical and drug that goes into your Prescription as well as the art of compounding. Our long experience and training makes us qualified for this work. . . . When prescriptions are needed call—

WARD & SON
The Leading Druggist
"We've Got It"
PHONE 62
Motorcycle Delivery

REPHAN'S SUMMER VALUES

Join the ever increasing group of THRIFTY SHOPPERS who pay cash and PAY LESS at REPHAN'S. Check the savings in this ad for every member of the family, and remember when you shop at REPHAN'S you PAY CASH AND PAY LESS.

LADIES NEW

Sheer Dresses
Cool Crisp Cottons for Comfortable Summer Wear.

98c Sizes 12 to 52

LADIES 25c PANTIES 19c

Ladies Rayon

SLIPS 25c

Ladies Batiste GOWNS 98c Values 59c

MEN'S WASH

PANTS

Ideal for cool summer wear. Will not shrink or fade. In whites, tans, stripes and checks.

98c Pair

Men's Big Yank SHORTS 25c

Ladies Summer

SHOES

Whites, Patents, Japonicas Values to $2.98

$1.49

Close-Out—All Ladies

HATS 49c 98c

50 ONLY SAMPLE COOL SUMMER DRESSES

Samples of Salesman's $4.98 Dresses. No 2 Dresses Alike. Sun Beau Prints—and Du Pont Fabrics—All Guaranteed Washable.

12 to 20 $2.98 $4.98 Values

SEE OUR WINDOWS

MEN'S SUMMER HATS

STRAWS—FELTS Our Entire Stock of $1.98 Values—

98c

Men's and Boy's

POLO SHIRTS 50c Values 25c

SLACK SUITS

Shirts and Pants to Match—Striped Shirts, Solid Color Pants.

98c SUIT

Childrens Bathing SUITS 25c

Ladies Play-Sport OVERALLS 98c

CHILDREN'S SANDALS Pair 69c

Ladies New Full Fashioned Pure Silk—

Knee Length SILK HOSE 79c Values 25c

All Leather GLADSTONE BAGS $6.95 Values $4.98

The Perfect Traveling Bag

MEN'S WORK SHIRTS

Double Back for Long Wear, Ventilated, for Summer Wear.

69c Values 49c

MEN'S VAT DYED

KHAKI PANTS Can't Shrink—Can't Fade

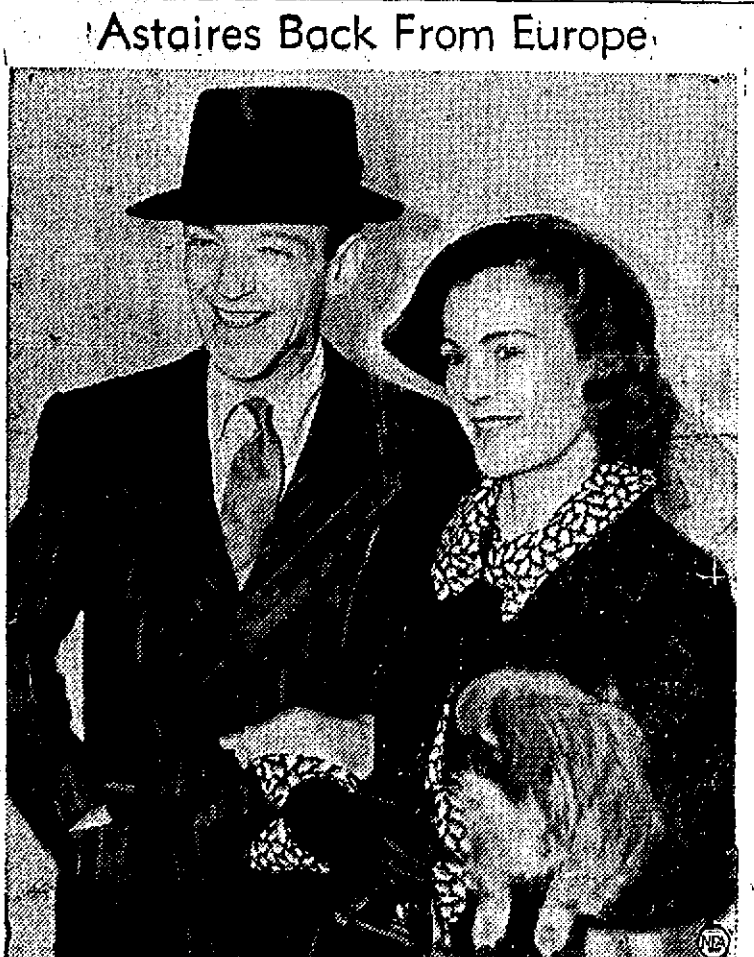

Sizes 29-42 98c

MEN'S SUMMER ANKLETS Pair 15c

Men's All Wool BATHING TRUNKS With Built-in Support 98c

PAY CASH—AND YOU PAY LESS REPHAN'S
"THE FRIENDLY STORE"

"SO SHEER"
The Town's Leading Hose Value Long Wear—Sheer Beauty 69c Pair

Astaires Back From Europe

Grinning happily after a European vacation in the course of which they hob-nobbed with the socially-elect in Britain, the Fred Astaires have returned to the United States. Here they are on jangling from the Queen Mary.